Journal of the House

NINETY-THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY of the STATE OF MISSOURI FIRST REGULAR SESSION

FIRST DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 5, 2005

The House was called to order at twelve o'clock noon by the Honorable Matt Blunt, Secretary of State.

Prayer by Reverend Bill Jetton.

Heavenly Father,

We praise You for the opportunity to gather today. We praise You as Creator and Sustainer of all around us. I pray for this body of legislators and ask that You give them Your wisdom, understanding and guidance as they make decisions on legislation within the State of Missouri. Help them have Your direction from the inside out.

Thank You for the blessings You have poured out on us and we ask for Your continued blessings for the future.

We pray in the name of Jesus in whom we believe. Amen.

ADDRESS BY SECRETARY OF STATE MATT BLUNT

It is a great privilege for me to preside over this ceremony marking the beginning of another legislative session in our state's proud history. Although today marks the last time I will appear before you in this chamber as your Secretary of State, I look forward to returning in just a few weeks to share with you my vision for moving our state forward. Today I will keep my remarks brief. Next time you will not be so fortunate.

One reason for my attempt at brevity is so that attention will fall where it belongs-on you and your achievement.

One of the highest honors in representative government is to be asked to represent the principles and interests of your neighbors and fellow citizens in a legislative body.

I want to congratulate each one of you on being given the high privilege of representing the people of your district in the Missouri General Assembly. I encourage you to bring the viewpoints, values and the interests of your districts to your work here in our state's Capitol.

As you begin to work on the challenges facing our public schools, improving our state's economy so that every Missourian that is willing and able to work can find a job and ensuring that quality health care is available and affordable to citizens in every region of our state, I urge you to do so in a spirit of cooperation, intently focused on creating a government worthy of the people it serves.

Though the challenges that confront us are great, the opportunity to make a difference and to improve the quality of life for all of our state's citizens lies before us. Let me pledge today what I will reiterate next week and throughout every day of this session. You will have my attention and cooperation as we work together to build a better Missouri.

I congratulate your families and friends who have joined you here today for their hard work and belief in your potential to make a positive difference for the future.

Thank you for the time and energy you have given and will give to help make Missouri a leader.

May God continue to bless each and every one of you, our state and our nation.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

ADDRESS BY TEMPORARY SPEAKER BOB DIXON

Thank you Mr. Secretary and Your Excellency-Elect.

As we open the 93rd General Assembly, I congratulate each member on being elected to this august body. Regardless of party affiliation, the significance of this day and our motivation is the same. We are here solely because our constituents sent us here, and we are here solely to serve the people of Missouri.

Serving in this Chamber and presiding as temporary Speaker of the House indeed is an honor. I am pleased to welcome each of our family members, guests, constituents, friends, former members and fellow Missourians. Surely, it is you who have made this day possible.

I am especially proud to be accompanied by my family... My lovely and talented wife, Amanda, without whom, I would be nothing; my daughters Grace and Rose; My mother Jean, a former member of this House and the first lady elected to it from Greene County; and my grandmother Mary who has devoted her entire life to instilling godly values in her Children and Grandchildren... one of the reasons I even stand in this chamber today. From the depths of my soul, I thank each of them for the sacrifices they have made so that I can serve the people of the 140th district, and I ask the members to help me honor them today.

The prayers and support of our families, friends and constituents under gird this chamber and serve as a mighty foundation. May God, by His grace, cause it to carry on.

In ushering in this new era, with our sights set upon the principles of good government, the rule of law, and the well being of the people, I now declare that nominations are in order for the Speaker of the House.

ADDRESS BY SPEAKER ROD JETTON

Speaker Sets New Tone

Every two years a new Speaker takes a few moments to talk about the direction the House will take in the new legislative session.

Thanks to your support it is my honor as your Speaker to deliver a few brief remarks on our future together over the next two years.

Today, I stand before you not to dictate exactly what the house will do, but hopefully to lay out a few guidelines and goals that will help us, yes all of us, both Republican and Democrat, those from rural, urban, or suburban Missouri and make this a better state to live in.

I have been in the Missouri House for four years: two years in the minority and two years in the majority. I have had an opportunity to see the process work from both sides of the fence. In my four years I have seen too much partisan fighting and not enough working together on the issues effecting Missouri's citizens. I have seen too many representatives worrying more about how a bill effects their re-election than how it will affect our state.

We should represent our districts, we should be proud of our party, BUT we should never let our party or our interest in getting re-elected overshadow what is best for the state of Missouri as a whole.

We also have a new development that has made it harder to pass laws in Missouri-Term limits.

Term limits have changed Jefferson City. No longer do we have experts who have heard both sides of an argument for 10 years and know the history of what has been done.

We need rule changes that will allow the bulk of law writing to be done in committee where hopefully we have members from both parties who have become experts in that area of the law.

We also need to change the way we debate the important issues facing Missouri. We should follow the federal example of setting time limits on debate of major bills. This time should be split evenly, yes evenly, between the Republicans and Democrats.

This would improve the process in three ways:

Ensure that both the majority and minority have a chance to make the best case for their position.

Allow the leaders of each side to let the most knowledgeable members on that subject to debate the merits of their argument.

Cut out occasional comments from members that simply play to the press or inflame partisan fighting.

For four years I have heard how partisan the leaders of the House have been. My first two years it was how bad the Democrats were. My last two it has been how bad the Republicans have been. In my view it wasn't the Democrats that caused partisan bickering and it's not the Republicans. It was a system that was designed to foster debate on issues. Unfortunately that system ended up fostering partisan bickering that all too often turned into personal attacks and killed good legislation. Debate should NOT be about sound bites, but substance.

We can change that. We have great people from all over the state of Missouri that have been elected to serve this state and they sincerely want to make things better.

Do we agree on everything? No we do not, we have major disagreements on how to make Missouri a better place to live, and many times these disagreements do not break down along party lines, but I have learned over the last four years that we all want to make this state better.

Let me give you an example. Representative Barbara Fraser from St. Louis County and I have totally different views on almost every major issue. I am a bit more conservative than she is...well, okay I'm much more conservative than she is. Over the last four years we have debated one another many times. I am sure she wonders how I can be so wrong on so many issues. Most observers would see no reason why Representative Fraser and myself should be friends, but that is exactly what we have become over these last four years. You may wonder why?

Well, it's because I learned that she sincerely wanted to make this state better. That she was a teacher, she had children, and she cared about people, just like me. What I discovered was Representative Fraser wanted the same things I wanted. She wanted this state to be better; she was just taking a different path to get there.

Do I always agree with her? No. Does she always agree with me? Certainly not. Can we work together to find solutions to Missouri's problems that hopefully will make this state better? Yes, we have before and we can again!!

This House should adopt a system of rules that allows for spirited debate on the merits of an issue. A process that is constructive and produces good laws that will make this state better. One that will give the minority a chance to have active participation in developing laws and ensures their voice is heard; while still allowing the majority to make certain the business of Missouri gets done.

These changes will create the most bi-partisan rules ever adopted by the Missouri House.

You are probably asking why with 97 Republicans and a 31-vote margin I would advocate such a change.

It's a good question, and the same one Representative Jeff Harris asked me when I shared these ideas with him. It's also the same question many of the members of my majority caucus asked me when I first talked about these changes.

Very simply, the reason we should add these changes is because it's the right thing to do for Missouri.

Why not change the system and allow for constructive debate on the important issues of our day? Why not try to improve our process and write better laws? We must remember that the citizens of this state have to actually live by the laws we pass. We owe it to those we serve to do our very best to consider all the ramifications of each and every bill we pass. These proposed changes will help us do that better.

My grandmother had a simple saying that applies to our rules, "Good better best, never let it rest, until your good is better, and your better is best," let me say that again. "Good better best, never let it rest, until your good is better, and your better is best." Our system is good. But it can be better and we should strive to make it the best it can be.

Besides talking about our rules there are two principles that we should remember as we are tackling the tough issues affecting our state.

Personal Responsibility
Self Interest

Personal Responsibility - we should always try to design programs that encourage and reward personal responsibility and independence.

One program that encourages personal responsibility is the Bright Flight Scholarship Program. The program is designed to help Missouri students go to college. High school students who get a 30 or higher on their ACT receive the scholarship, which is worth up to $10,000 over 5 years. However, in order to get and keep the money there are standards the students have to meet. They must go to a Missouri university, they must stay enrolled full time and they must maintain a minimum grade point level. This program has helped over 8,100 students go to college in the last year alone, and has kept them in college by holding them accountable to a level of performance. Thanks to this program there are many hardworking students getting state assistance to further their education. Isn't this the model that we should look to as we address the issues of the future?

When we ignore the importance of Personal Responsibility we end up with programs that reward failure, breed abuse and deprive the truly needy of vital services.

Also, when passing laws we cannot forget about the influence and greed of self-interest.

Let me give you an example.

I recently received a letter from a constituent in Marble Hill.

She told me how she and her husband had been swindled for over $50,000 by a crooked contractor. He told them he needed the money up front in order to purchase supplies and labor for the project. But he took the money and used it for something else, never ordering the supplies and never doing the work. This contractor was prosecuted but got off on a technicality. Then in civil court he admitted to defrauding the couple. However, he quit doing business to avoid repaying the money he received for services he never gave.

Now my constituent has to live with an unfinished house, a loss of tens of thousands of dollars and no one to turn to for help. State government has a responsibility to recognize that sometimes due to greed and self interest people get hurt. In these instances we must act!

With these principles of Personal Responsibility and Self Interest in mind, we must spend this session working to tackle the major issues facing our state.

There are four things we must accomplish this session:

Building a stronger economy and creating jobs;
Make government more accountable and spend every dollar wisely;
Properly fund needed services; AND Protect the traditional family values that made our state great.

There are three pillars to rebuilding our fragile economy.

First, we must pass meaningful legal reform that will keep doctors and jobs in Missouri!

Next, we must reform our broken workman's compensation system, to protect both workers and employers.

Finally, we have to hold MoDOT accountable and build the roads Missouri needs!

By growing our economy and creating jobs we will bring more revenue into state government to fund needed services; while at the same time holding Missouri government accountable.

We can do this by looking for areas to cut the fat out of the state budget, by continuing to root out the waste and inefficiency in our state bureaucracy and cutting programs that are ineffective and unproductive.

When the economy is firing on all cylinders and the unnecessary fat is cut from state spending we will be able to better fund needed programs like education, social services, and healthcare.

Our first responsibility is to our children. They deserve an education second to none and we must create a formula that is fair for every child in Missouri.

All of our work to improve our economy, preserve our tax dollars, and fund our most necessary programs mean nothing if we turn our backs on the traditional family values that form the foundation for this great state. We are entrusted with this duty to protect our ways of life.

Thankfully, Missourians already joined together and overwhelmingly ratified traditional marriage. But we cannot afford to assume the battle is over. And we must resist those who would manipulate the Constitution to justify eliminating God from our society.

These issues are not Republican or Democrat. These issues are important to all Missourians.

If you have a wreck in your car on the road no one asks if you are a Republican or a Democrat you just need help.

If you are a kid in Marble Hill, Missouri attending school in a poor rural district, it doesn't matter if you're a Republican or Democrat you just need a good education.

If you lose your job and can't pay your bills, nobody cares if you're a Republican or Democrat you just need a job.

What matters is that we are all Missourians and we all have an obligation to use the positions we have been given to work for a better Missouri.

The reforms proposed today are not designed to stop spirited debate on the important issues. It is my hope that we can foster a system that encourages vigorous and principled debate on all the important issues. Whether we are working on legal reform, welfare reform, transportation, or education we will pass better laws for Missouri that will make this state better if we keep our focus on the issues and not on personalities or parties.

I believe if we go forward with a bi-partisan spirit of cooperation, and consider how personal responsibility and self-interest affect the laws we pass we will be successful.

May each of us in two years look back and say we built a better Missouri.

I want to leave you with one last story. As a history major, I love to read about our founding fathers and the start of our country. At the Constitutional Convention the Federalist and Anti-Federalist members were at odds about our Constitution. They vigorously argued their points several times and it almost broke up in failure. But they came together and produced one of the greatest documents ever created, one we still live by today.

After it was over, members of both sides thought that they had given in too much and due to the compromises, believed it would be a failed government. We know that they succeeded on a grander scale than they ever could have imagined.

Many times, over the last four years, I have felt strongly that I was right on my point of view. I didn't want to give in to any other idea. But also, over those four years, I have thought about our Founding Fathers and how they compromised even when they thought they were right and through their compromise gave us the best government ever.

I hope we can all follow the example of our Founders and work together in a bi-partisan way to make this state better.

If we do, I am confident that we will look back in two years and know that we have given our citizens the best state and country to live in.

Thank you, God bless you, and God bless Missouri!

ADDRESS BY SPEAKER PRO TEM BEARDEN

Plotting A New Course for Missouri

Mr. Speaker, Governor-elect Blunt, Auditor McCaskill, Treasurer-elect Steelman, Attorney General Nixon, Justices of the Court, and Members of the General Assembly, thank you for the opportunity to serve as your Speaker Pro Tem of the House of Representatives. It is a privilege that brings with it great responsibility. I will cherish this opportunity to serve Missourians and will strive to fulfill my responsibilities with integrity, honor, and conviction.

Sometime ago, I came across a sign that read, “What is popular is not always right; what is right is not always popular.” This sign encapsulates my approach to governing and my commitment to making principled decisions.

As your Speaker Pro Tem I make only one promise. When critical decisions arise, I will listen to multiple perspectives, weigh the options before me, and make principled decisions based on what is right not necessarily what is popular.

We, the members of the 93rd General Assembly, have before us an extraordinary opportunity to be captains of change in our state. Together we can chart a course into the open waters of Missouri’s future that is optimistic and hopeful, but that is tempered through principled pragmatism. This course can lead Missouri families to great prosperity and abounding opportunities. Together we can establish a new tone in Jefferson City – and throughout Missouri – that goes beyond political rhetoric by demonstrating hope and collaboration. Together, we can forge stronger, better solutions that have a positive effect throughout state government, and in the hearts & minds of those that we serve.

We must all remember partisanship has a place and function in our republic. The will of the majority should and will be advanced. But it is important to recognize that our republic only functions when the rights of the minority party are protected and observed. Members of the majority party must act in good faith to consider ideas advanced by the minority party on their merits, not merely through the spectacle of partisan politics.

Look around you. We are blessed to serve Missourians in this great Chamber. Together we can honor all Missouri public servants by pouring our hearts, minds, and souls into the decisions that we make with particular focus on doing what is right rather than what is popular. We owe this to the Missourians that have elected us, and owe far more to those thousands of Missourians and fellow countrymen that have given their lives to protect and defend the freedoms guaranteed to us in the federal and state Constitutions.

Growing up in Wayne County, I was a privileged child. My parents were not wealthy nor were we a more-than-average social standing in our small town of Piedmont, Missouri. The privilege that I speak of is that I had two wonderful parents willing to instill in me traditional Missouri values. It is these values that guide my life, my actions, and my decisions as a public servant.

It was they that passed on to me the importance of a strong and supportive family to a fulfilling life. Families are the foundation for success in our great state. I am privileged to have with me today, members of my family. Joining us is my wife of 30 years, Debbie, and our youngest daughter Allison. Our oldest daughter Amber recently graduated from college and is currently living with her husband in Oklahoma.

Throughout my four years of service in the House and even before, the members of my family have sacrificed more than I thought possible to ensure my success as a public servant. Debbie has been a steady hand and heart when I have struggled with decisions that affect so many. She has also done an extraordinary job at helping our daughter Allison grow into a wonderful young woman that will soon be ready to depart for college. Thank you both.

It is the hard-working families of Missouri that establish the basis for our economy, our political system, and the endless opportunities for success in our state. Ronald Reagan once said "Government must keep pace with the changing needs of our state and its people to be sure that government can fulfill its legitimate obligations."

To ensure our state's ability to adapt to the changing needs of Missourians, our future rests with new policies aimed at strengthening families through job creation, expanded educational opportunities, and more effective, efficient stewardship of state tax dollars.

My travels throughout Missouri have provided me the opportunity to hear first hand accounts about the importance of education, the affects of plant closings, lost jobs, and the rising cost of health insurance on Missouri families. Tragically, the extraordinary ability and resourcefulness of our Missouri families has been stifled by outdated government structures and failing regulatory policies. While Missouri's economy is growing, so too are the needs and demands of hard-working families. New policies must be adopted that ensure Missouri utilizes an aggressive and competitive strategy to remain on the leading edge of job creation and healthcare protection efforts.

Missouri families have consistently echoed the common need for protecting our future by expanding educational opportunities in our state. During the current fiscal year, our public schools were provided the largest education budget in state history. But money alone is not enough. We must quickly turn our attention to policies aimed at ensuring education dollars are distributed equitably.

The current system for funding education must be reformed to ensure that dollars will be distributed fairly regardless of the amount of money being spent. To ensure the viability of this goal, previous efforts to ensure that dollars actually reach our classrooms, and not just the bureaucracy, must be expanded.

Missouri must also look beyond traditional K-12 education models and integrate effective higher education programs into our formula for sustainable economic growth. Successful programs in higher education like our A+ schools program should be used as a model for distributing higher education funds in Missouri. This will maximize the ability of Missouri college and university students to compete in the new job markets of the 21st century, while ensuring that higher education dollars are spent in classrooms rather than on additional administrative growth. Expanding education opportunities must be supported with reforms affecting job creation in the state.

We need comprehensive reforms to our workers' compensation laws, unemployment insurance laws, and civil justice system that stop abuses at taxpayer expense. Each time an employer pays out an excessive workers' compensation or unemployment claim based on an egregious abuse by one employee, costs associated with that claim are passed onto other Missouri families that are struggling to put food on the table.

Every lawsuit that results in extraordinary and excessive judgments for one Missourian places affordable healthcare out of the reach of yet another Missouri family. It is wrong to reward those seeking to abuse the system for personal gain at the expense of those hard-working Missourians that are building the future of our state.

We need to overhaul our workers' compensation system, regain control of our unemployment insurance system, and enact tort reforms to ensure hard-working Missouri families will be able to put food on the table and maintain access to affordable healthcare.

Perhaps the most important method of protecting Missouri families is by ensuring that we, the members of the 93rd General Assembly, are good stewards of taxpayer dollars. It is our responsibility to ensure that each tax dollar invested in a state program or service is being used in an effective and efficient manner. We must work together to continue reviewing every state program and service to eliminate spending that is wasteful or ineffective.

Missouri must also enact reforms aimed at ensuring more stability and predictability to our state budget. Serious consideration must be given to policies aimed at ensuring that state government lives within its means by limiting growth in state spending to the amount being collected in a single year.

Had Missouri's legislatures of the 1990's built budgets on revenues gained only in a single year rather than spending down Missouri's emergency savings accounts, many of the difficult financial decisions made in recent years would not have been necessary.

The future of our state rests with new policies aimed at strengthening families through job creation, expanded educational opportunities, and more effective, efficient stewardship of state tax dollars. But these efforts alone will not provide the course for a successful and bright future for our Missouri. Only together can we chart a course to a brighter, better future for Missouri that is based on the virtue of principled and pragmatic decisions.

I am confident that together we will make Missouri a better place to work, live, and raise a family.

Thank you for the privilege of serving as Speaker Pro Tem of the Missouri House of Representatives.

Speaker Jetton resumed the Chair.

Pursuant to Section 9.141 RSMo, the Bill of Rights was read by Miss Tonya Arnzen of Leopold High School.

President Pro Tem.....Michael R. Gibbons
Secretary of Senate.....Terry L. Spieler
Sergeant-at-Arms.....Glen Pound
Doorkeeper.....Ken Holman

“The National Anthem” was sung by Ms. Barbara Huffman.

BENEDICTION

The benediction was given by Representative Brian Baker.

President Abraham Lincoln stated in his second inaugural address, “...with malice toward none, with firmness in the right as God gives us to see right, let us finish the work we are in ...”

As a state, we are engaged in a work that must be completed. As we close in prayer this morning, let us remember each other, our families, and the citizens of our great state.

Please stand and join me in a moment of prayer.

Our heavenly Father, You are a great and mighty God and we give You glory and praise.

Today, our state faces many historical challenges and we ask for Your guidance and wisdom as we work together to serve our fellow man. Give us all the ability to meet these challenges with discernment and hope.

You have sustained our great state and nation through difficult times. You, O God, have given us the opportunity and the resources to impact future generations in a positive and powerful way.

Allow us to be a beacon of light to our state, proving unity and bi-partisanship is the greatest tool for progress. Let our efforts be a testimony to future generations.

We look beyond the borders of our great state and pray for our nation, O Lord, as our soldiers defend the innocent and expand freedom. We ask for Your continued protection upon these great warriors and their families. Give our soldiers the courage, clarity-of-thought, and wisdom in their mission to protect America.

We also look beyond the borders of our nation and ask a special blessing upon the victims of nature’s wrath in Indonesia, India, and the surrounding region. Give strength to the victims and courage to those who bring aid.

In these days, we ask, O Lord, that You give us peace of mind and calmness of heart. Let our actions give our children hope for the future.

May You continue to bless our great state. In Jesus’ name we pray. Amen.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRD DAY, MONDAY, JANUARY 10, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, give ear to our words and consider our meditation. At the onset of this 2005 Session, we yield our plans, pursuits, understanding, wisdom and passions, that we might gain sharp insight into what is true, honorable, right, pure, gracious, and of necessity for this year.

As we reflect on the upcoming Session, we are bombarded with thoughts of what lie ahead. Grant us peace.

Despite our desire to accomplish what is best for our constituents and this state, anxieties, disappointments and distractions that hinder our best efforts sometimes bog us down. Grant us the serenity and wisdom to overcome these obstacles.

O Lord, watch over family and us while we are absent one from another. Keep us in Your love, as each day requires, as we make our journey from loved ones to duty.

May Your grace be sufficient for all we do.

In the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Jessikah Steen and Nicki Fryer.

I am grateful for the confidence you have placed in me. I sought this office knowing that the generous and able support of my fellow citizens would help me shoulder the many grave responsibilities that accompany the honor of leading this great state.

It will be my great purpose to lead Missouri in a new direction. I promised change in our state capitol. Missourians mandated change in both the tone and the priorities of our state government. Our shared desire for a future of great opportunity and achievement for every Missourian demands that we heed their counsel. Change begins today, at this hour, in this place.

We stand in the shadow of Jefferson who believed that a society founded upon the rule of law and liberty was dependent upon public education and the diffusion of knowledge. He correctly extolled the virtues of learning when he stated that, “No other sure foundation can be devised for the preservation of freedom and happiness.”

Missouri’s Constitution declares that education must be our first commitment. Even if we were not legally bound, we would be morally bound to serve the children of our state and the families who have placed their confidence in us.

We must fulfill this obligation. We must transcend partisan division. We must meet Jefferson’s standard for enlightened government. We can no longer drift from the vision embraced by the Founders and our Constitution.

Working with your elected representatives, I will strive to ensure that every young Missourian has the education they deserve. Their future and our own depend upon it.

In the days ahead we must and will create an entrepreneurial climate where the spirit of free enterprise will flourish and aid the creation of good family supporting jobs. We must also remember that Missouri’s future rests with the creativity and genius of the people - not in government programs.

Missourians deserve a government that promises no more than it can deliver and delivers everything it promises. Taxpayers deserve a government that harnesses technology to better serve the people. It is within our capacity to provide smaller and more responsible government.

In a government such as ours we have vigorous contests to determine who should lead. The recent election was no exception. Now we inaugurate a new government on a day that transcends any one individual or any one party.

Today, we begin the important task of working together to improve the lives of all Missourians. I commit all of my strength and energy to this good cause. As differing points of view compete, I encourage all to remember Jefferson’s admonition that “every difference of opinion is not a difference of principle.”

The government that we inaugurate today recommits itself to our shared principles. I stand before you today mindful of our shared aspiration for a government that better serves the people. We are united in our hope for a government that is frugal and wise. We remind ourselves that the values that spring from our soil and are cultivated in our homes and places of worship should be embraced rather than scorned.

The spirit and determination of the people to chart their own destiny is the greatest power for good in human affairs. The demands of the present must stand above the political habits of the past. When necessary, the needs of this hour have right to sweep aside the barriers that prevent Missourians from reaching their full potential.

We stand first among nations because of our hopefulness, our vision, and our desire for improvement. When we speak of the American dream, the dream that we describe centers not on the glories of the past, but on the possibilities of the future.

Over the next four years, we will be bold. We will be willing to experiment. We will not fear failure. We will bear setbacks with resolve and press forward with determined innovation. We will attack problems with the deliberation that accompanies this great responsibility and with the energy necessary to build a better Missouri.

Missouri can lead America in solving many of the problems that challenge our country. Our workers are ready, eager and able to meet the tests of the global economy. Missouri’s teachers are dedicated to preparing our young people for a future of opportunity.

We are fortunate to have many valuable resources at our disposal, but our greatest resource has been, is, and always will be our people. In the measure that state government has fallen short, it has done so by setting itself apart from, and above, the wisdom, common sense, and values of the people. Government is not the author of progress, nor the first source of wisdom, nor the Creator of our freedom, nor the wellspring of the values of faith, family and freedom that make America the greatest nation on earth. Government is the people's tool. It should be the servant, not the master.

A statue on the north side of our beautiful Capitol commemorates the signing of the Louisiana Purchase. On this side, we are under the gaze of our third President whose vision secured the new territory and defined its character. From that territory, pioneers carved a state destined for greatness. Their optimism, hope and faith endure. We are the heirs of their labor. Let us also remember that we are guardians of their legacy.

I took the oath with my hand upon two Bibles. One is the Book I turn to each day. It will remind me of the solemn pledge I have made before God and my fellow citizens. The other is a Bible that Melanie and I will give to our son upon his birth. It will remind me that what we do today, tomorrow and across the next four years will help define the future opportunities of every Missouri child.

May God grant that in the days of prosperity and contentment, He will fill our hearts with praise and that in moments of trial, we will remember to seek His aid.

Together, we will chart a new course for our state. With your prayers, encouragement and support, we will succeed. May God bless Missouri and the United States of America.

The Benediction was pronounced by Pastor Paul Brooks, Senior Pastor, First Baptist Church of Raytown, Missouri.

The Doorkeeper announced the approach of the Honorable Ronnie L. White, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Missouri. Chief Justice White was duly escorted to the House Chamber and to the Speaker's dais where he delivered the following message to the assembly in Joint Session.

STATE OF THE JUDICIARY ADDRESS

By

Chief Justice Ronnie White

President Kinder, Speaker Jetton, distinguished members of the Senate and House of Representatives, honorable statewide elected officials, esteemed Court colleagues, and honored guests – I thank you for the opportunity to come before you today. First, I want to take a moment to welcome the newest member of our Court. In a day and age in which courts throughout the country sometimes are accused of sitting in ivory towers, isolated from the world surrounding them, we are blessed with a person who has spent her entire judicial career breaking down these perceived barriers. Judge Mary Russell has sought to open the doors of our judicial processes to all who want to see them, and anyone who has met her knows that her affable demeanor and common-sense voice will add to the collegiality of our Court. She is an experienced appellate judge, serving nine years on the Court of Appeals, Eastern District. During her first year on the bench, I had the pleasure of being one of her colleagues. Since her appointment to the Supreme Court, Judge Russell has become involved in several Jefferson City civic activities, including volunteering as a truancy court judge in a local middle school. She also meets with students, parents and teachers each week, holding a mock court, to help ensure that students attend school regularly. Please join me in welcoming the Honorable Mary Rhodes Russell. I encourage any of you who do not know her already to take the opportunity to meet her – I am sure that you are going to like Judge Russell.

We also look forward to getting to know all of you, because as we all know, Judge Russell is not the only new officeholder in Jefferson City this year. Accordingly, we wish to extend an invitation to all of the new legislators to join us at the Supreme Court this afternoon so we can open what we hope proves to be just the beginning of a fruitful dialogue between our two branches of government.

We stand at the forefront of a new legislative session, a session that brings with it a new Speaker, a new President Pro Tem, new minority leaders in both chambers, and, of course, a new Governor, along with other new statewide elected officials and legislators. It is clear that the collective will of the people of this great state has dictated to us that change must be embraced, along with all the promises, challenges and hope that change brings. When the voters of this state deliver messages such as these, their importance is rarely lost on members of the legislative or executive branches whose job it is to carry them out.

We in the Judiciary must listen to this message of change as well. We must continue to look at what we might do to improve our efficiency and effectiveness so that public trust and confidence in our judicial system remains high. Public trust is not merely an amorphous concept to which we pay lip service; indeed, it is the very foundation of our judicial system and ultimately our democracy. It is an ongoing covenant between the governing and the governed, often renewed in the most unexpected times and places – places such as the Ukraine, where recent electoral and constitutional crises pushed the Judiciary into the middle of critical decisions on which the very rule of law hung in the balance. Even though it was certain that a sizable portion of the populace would disagree vehemently with its decision, no matter what it was, that nation took a major step forward into the community of nations by agreeing with and enforcing the Judiciary's obligation to make such a decision.

On a smaller scale, here in Missouri, it is this balance that the Judiciary must strike on a daily basis as we serve our role as the third, coequal branch of government. We must not presume to think that the greatly overused phrase "judicial independence" allows us to view ourselves as above any other branch of government or as unaccountable to the people we serve. Rather than independence, let us talk instead of interdependence. As Abraham Lincoln noted so eloquently 144 years ago: "A house divided against itself cannot stand."

The same can be said of our three branches of government. We can – and must – be faithful not only to the constitution but also to each other and to the roles we have been given by the architects of this great system. We in the Judiciary cannot extend ourselves into areas where our constitution or laws do not permit us to tread. Instead, we must remain neutral – free from political or ideological philosophies – free from high-dollar political campaigns – and retain faithfulness to the rule of law above all else.

Our role is fundamentally different from that of either the legislative or the executive branch in two ways. First, we do not have the power to change any law that we see fit to change or to proclaim law where no such law exists. Rather, we must only deal with the specific facts and issues that are brought before us, and even then we must only interpret the law, not make the law. Second, our role is not to represent the will of the people directly as you do. Instead, we exist to resolve disputes according to the rule of law and its principles. In the end, the Judiciary's role in our system of government is to make sure that the laws you pass and the constitutions of this great state and nation – laws and principles that we all are sworn to uphold and protect – stand as a bulwark of security and a model for the rest of the world. No one in our state – or in our Judiciary – shall be above the law!

It may be that, in protecting these precepts, we run afoul of what is perceived as the will of the people on a given case or legal issue. However, we are constrained by our past rulings, the laws passed by this general assembly, our state and federal constitutions, and decisions of the United States Supreme Court. Taken together, this body of law preserves the will of the majority and the rights of the minority all at once, a tension that may result in decisions that, in some cases, are deemed by many to be unpopular. But popularity is not a criterion to be applied to judicial opinions. As a result of this tension – and I know this will surprise you – sometimes people might even be upset with us! Of course, we are in a business where typically half the people disagree with our decisions because they lost, and even a portion of those who won are upset because they do not think they won enough – and the people who are happy never seem to call their legislators! Regardless of this reality, we must welcome criticism and take it as evidence that the system of checks and balances and the rule of law that our forefathers envisioned are still working.

As United States Supreme Court Chief Justice William Rehnquist noted earlier this month in his annual report on the State of the Federal Judiciary, "criticism of judges and judicial decisions is as old as our republic, an outgrowth to some extent of the tensions built into our three-branch system of government." He further noted, "to a significant degree those tensions are healthy in maintaining a balance of power in our government."

While it may seem strange to some, a certain degree of tension between the branches can produce a more effective government for the people as a whole while ensuring that no branch of government can impinge on individual rights inappropriately. As each branch watches the others, all are driven to excel and meet the challenges raised in this ongoing experiment that is our system of government.

However, we must not let these tensions hinder or destroy our ability to cooperate with one another – remember, for example, the success that the cooperative Commission on Children's Justice has had in making strides toward real reform in our state's child abuse and neglect system. We also must not let these natural tensions prevent us from maintaining the consistency in the rule of law to which the people of this state are entitled.

I know that, as this session moves forward, you will spend countless hours looking deeply at how to improve the economy of this state, at how best to improve the lives of its citizens. All of us in government, all of our working people, all of our corporate citizens and the public at large want our state to grow and be prosperous. We want to experience good wages and benefits and healthy profits to expand commerce and spur the economy. As this general assembly addresses the issues of jobs and economic growth, I ask you to consider carefully the Judiciary's role in Missouri's economic engine. We play, in fact, a vital role and one that is not as easily recognized as, for example, the economic growth prerequisites of good transportation, good schools, a trained work force and fair taxes.

You will find that very high on industry's list of necessary components in reviewing the attractiveness of any state for relocation or for new plants is a solid, predictable, professional and efficient judicial system in which they can get a fair and consistent application of the law and treatment of their people. Corporations do not expect to receive a favorable decision every time they go to court, but they do expect to have the courts open every day of the week, every week of the year, available as a forum in which business interests can be litigated fairly and expeditiously. And these corporations also expect that the courts will not be swayed by public opinion or concerned about inflaming some interest group but rather will stick to their judicial business of applying the law fairly.

Our business centers on providing efficient services. We are not seeking to make a profit; rather, we seek to provide high quality judicial services at the lowest possible cost. Justice is served, disputes are settled fairly and promptly, and the economy marches on. We understand our role and we will, with your support, accomplish this mission. One other point: our courts, at an annual cost of $140 million in state general revenue, generated roughly $395 million in positive economic impact to our state. This was through fees, fines and costs paid to government entities, and money paid through our courts when private individuals and businesses seek our assistance in enforcing decisions. Money paid to government entities is distributed annually to local schools, counties, the state, and various funds such as the crime victims' compensation fund, the head injury fund, the prosecuting attorneys' training fund, and so on. In other words, we do our share.

As Alexander Hamilton so wisely observed 200 years ago, the judiciary has neither the power of the sword or of the purse, but merely judgment. Therefore, as you debate the various economic proposals and other matters that are certain to cross your desks, I ask that, as the body to whom the power of the purse has been given, you consider the role you play in preserving – and, indeed, in improving – our Judiciary and its resources. I hope to work with you in finding new ways to maintain a well-qualified judiciary and judicial staff, and I hope that, in the end, together we may live out our state motto – “Salus Populi Suprema Lex Esto” – Let the welfare of the people be the supreme law. Thank you.

The Joint Session was dissolved by Senator Shields.

Speaker Jetton resumed the Chair.

The perfecting amendment may be directed to the bill or to amendments to the bill. If a perfecting amendment is adopted, the bill as finally passed with the perfecting amendment shall be returned to the other house for its concurrence in the perfecting amendment.

Previous Question

Rule 72. Any member may move the previous question. The motion shall be restated by the Speaker in this form: "Shall the question under immediate consideration be now put?" It may be moved like any other question but it shall only prevail when supported by a constitutional majority and until decided shall preclude amendments and debate. If the motion is sustained, the proponent of the matter under consideration shall be allowed one minute in which to make a closing statement before the House votes on the question. When a motion that a bill be perfected and printed, or that a bill be agreed to, read a third time, and placed upon its passage fails, or when any other question is decided by the House, any member voting on the prevailing side may move to reconsider the vote provided that the motion to reconsider is made within three legislative days after the day on which the vote was taken.

Procedure for Motion to Reconsider

Rule 79. A constitutional majority is required to sustain any motion to reconsider. If the motion to reconsider is sustained the House shall proceed to the original question or motion immediately before proceeding to other questions; whereupon the original question shall be voted upon before any other business of the House is transacted. This shall not preclude further debate or amendment of the proposition, if otherwise appropriate. Any motion to reconsider having failed once shall not be reconsidered again, except to reconsider the vote by which an appropriation bill failed to pass. In the case of an appropriation bill, the motion to reconsider may be considered as many times as the House chooses.

In all cases where a rule of the House of Representatives refers to the "calling of the names of the members" or "calling of the ayes or noes" or "calling of the roll", such reference shall be understood to refer also to the "taking" of the vote by electronic roll call system. There shall be a taking of the vote by electronic roll call system on the motion of any one member which is seconded by four other members immediately standing. A vote by electronic roll call shall be limited to thirty minutes, except in the cases of quorum calls. BY FIVE YEARS, THEREBY REAUTHORIZING THE HAZARDOUS WASTE MANAGEMENT COMMISSION TO PROMULGATE RULES TO BE EFFECTIVE BY JULY 1, 2007.

IN SUPPORT THEREOF, THE COMMITTEE STATES:

2. The proposed amendments were filed with the Joint Committee on Administrative Rules (herein after "committee") on April 15, 2004;

3. The final orders of rulemaking were filed with the office of the Joint Committee on Administrative Rules on August 24, 2004;

4. On September 16, 2004, the committee conducted a hearing on the final orders of rulemaking for the proposed amendments, with testimony from the Hazardous Waste Management Commission, opponents of the rule and proponents of the amendment to the rule;

5. On September 16, 2004, the committee met in executive session and voted 8-1 to disapprove the final orders of rulemaking for the proposed amendments, have the Hazardous Waste Management Commission hold the rule in abeyance for thirty legislative days and recommend the General Assembly permanently suspend the disapproved amendment of the rule by concurrent resolution;

6. A majority vote of the members of the committee found the rule lacking in compliance with the provisions of Chapter 536 RSMo. in that the Commission lacked statutory authority to promulgate the rules after the statutory deadline for promulgation of rules contained in §260.905 RSMo., which was July 1, 2002, in violation of §536.014 RSMo.;

8. On September 16, 2004, the committee further voted 9-0 to make a recommendation to the General Assembly to adopt legislation extending the statutory deadlines contained in the Dry Cleaning Emergency Response Trust Fund statutory provisions by five years, thereby reauthorizing the Commission to promulgate rules to be effective by July 1, 2007;

WHEREFORE, THE JOINT COMMITTEE ON ADMINISTRATIVE RULES RECOMMENDS THAT THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY ADOPT LEGISLATION EXTENDING THE STATUTORY DEADLINES CONTAINED IN THE DRY CLEANING EMERGENCY RESPONSE TRUST FUND STATUTES IN

No bill shall be taken up for consideration by the House unless it has been upon the calendar for at least one legislative day.

(b) No bill shall be placed on the Federal Mandate Calendars unless it is federally mandated, immediate in nature and reduces revenues or savings if not enacted. A federal mandate bill may only contain subject matter concerning the federal mandate. A member wishing for his or her bill to be considered for placement on the Federal Mandate Calendar shall request in writing to the chair of the committee where such bill has been referred. The written request shall state the deadline by which the State must comply with the federal mandate and what will happen if the State fails to take action by such date. A copy for each committee member of the federal statute(s) or regulation(s) mandating such action shall accompany the request. After the committee has voted "do pass" on a bill with such a request, it shall take a second recorded vote on whether or not to recommend that it be placed on the Federal Mandate Calendar. If said bill is reported "do pass" by the committee with a recommendation that same be placed on the Federal Mandate Calendar, and the Committee on Rules concurs therein, the Committee on Rules Chair shall submit to the Speaker a copy of the original written request, along with a copy of the federal statute(s) or regulation(s) mandating State action. A motion to have a bill placed upon the calendar must be made within three legislative days after the bill is reported and when the sponsor of the bill is present or the motion is made by a member upon the sponsor's written request. If no such action is taken within said time, the bill shall lie on the table. If such a motion is sustained, the bill shall stand automatically referred to the Committee on Rules for further action thereon.

Any bill which increases net expenditures of the state, reduces net revenue of the state, or contains penalty provisions, shall not be considered by the committee for consent; provided however, any bill which specifically authorizes an easement or right-of-way involving state property may be considered by the committee for placement on the Consent Calendar.

(b) Procedure on House Bills. If the committee shall so determine, the committee report shall include a request that a bill be placed on the "House Consent Calendar for Perfection". Any bill so reported shall automatically be referred to the Committee on Rules. Any bill reported by the Committee on Rules with the recommendation that it be placed on the House Consent Calendar for Perfection shall be placed on that calendar and after said bill has remained on the "House Consent Calendar for Perfection" for five legislative days, it shall be ordered perfected and advanced to the "House Consent Calendar for Third Reading and Final Passage" without further action of the House, unless five members, with at least two from each political party, have filed written objection with the Chief Clerk. If such objections are filed, the bill shall be placed on the House Bills to be Perfected and Printed Calendar. An objection made by five members under this rule cannot be rescinded. Where there is a House Committee Substitute for a consent bill or House Committee Amendments to a consent bill, the committee substitute, or the bill as amended, shall be deemed adopted and perfected by consent.

(c) Senate Bills - Consent. When the Senate passes a bill by its procedure for consent bills, such bill shall be considered for treatment as a consent bill by the House committee without further request; provided however, that the same committee procedures, votes and requirements for House Bills being considered for consent shall be applied to Senate Bills being considered for consent. A Senate Bill may be considered by the committee for Consent even if it was not a Consent Bill in the Senate.

(d) Procedure on Senate Bills. Senate Bills passed out of the House committee and Committee on Rules with the request that the bill be placed on the Senate Bills for Third Reading and Final Passage - Consent Calendar are subject to the five member objection provision of this rule.

House committee amendments and House committee substitutes to Senate consent bills shall be deemed adopted on the fifth legislative day.

AMENDMENTS AND SUBSTITUTES

Rule 45. (a) In Writing and Distributed in Advance. Proposed amendments must be reduced to writing. Every amendment shall be distributed in advance of the time the bill is initially taken up for consideration. An amendment shall be considered to have been distributed if it has been placed on the members' desks in paper form, except for the desk of any member who has waived receipt of amendments. The sponsor of an amendment that has been distributed may make technical corrections at the time the amendment is offered or under consideration. Any technical corrections shall be read in full by the clerk. Technical corrections shall be subject to a point of order that they are not truly technical in nature. Every proposed amendment to the amendment and substitute amendment shall be read in its entirety by the clerk unless it has been distributed in advance. Amendments to the amendment and substitute amendments may be offered even though not distributed in advance of the time a bill is initially taken up for consideration.

(b) What Amendments and Substitute Amendments are in Order. When a bill, motion or proposition is under consideration, a motion to amend and a motion to amend that amendment shall be in order, and it also shall be in order to offer a further amendment by way of substitute for the original motion to amend, to which one amendment may be offered. When an amendment is offered, a substitute for that amendment is offered and an amendment to the substitute is offered, it shall not be in order to offer a substitute for the amendment to the substitute. Any proposed amendment in the third degree shall be out of order. Any bill or amendment may be withdrawn by the sponsor before amendment or decision thereon. Once a bill has been amended, it shall be in the possession of the House.

No amendment to the first 12 appropriations bills of the state budget constituting the operating budget of the state shall be in order if it increases the total amount of general revenue or general revenue equivalent appropriated in the aforementioned 12 House appropriations bills as reported from the Committee on Budget. Any amendment that increases the amount of general revenue or general revenue equivalent appropriated in the aforementioned 12 House appropriations bills shall be required to contain an equal reduction in general revenue or general revenue equivalent appropriated in the same bill or shall be required to be submitted with a separate amendment that makes an equal reduction in general revenue or general revenue equivalent in any other of the twelve bills still pending. If the reduction is in another bill, the decreasing amendment shall be taken up first, and the increasing amendment may be taken up only if the decreasing amendment is adopted.

2. If a member's decreasing amendment is adopted and the same member's increasing amendment is defeated, the decreasing amendment's adoption is void.

3. The offering and adoption of an amendment decreasing the amount of general revenue or general revenue equivalent appropriated without a balancing increase in the same amendment or a paired amendment creates no right of another member to offer an increasing amendment in any amount up to the amount of the decrease effected by the decreasing amendment, and no member may be recognized for the purpose of making such an amendment.

4. For the perfection of the first 12 House appropriations bills of the state budget constituting the operating budget of the state only, it shall be permissible to amend any line item as often as the House pleases, as long as prior adopted amendments to the line item are taken into account.

5. No House Committee Substitute of the state budget constituting the operating budget of the state shall be adopted until all amendments to the first 12 House appropriations bills or substitutes have been disposed of.

Committee Substitute Printed

Rule 46. When a committee recommends a substitute for a bill, the original bill will accompany the substitute. The substitute shall be handled on the floor of the House by the committee chair or any member designated by the committee chair. The Chief Clerk shall have an appropriate number of copies of the substitute printed. No committee substitute shall be called from the calendar of the House until the printed copies have been distributed for at least one legislative day. Amendments, if any, may be offered to the substitute before the vote on the motion to adopt the substitute is taken. If the substitute is defeated, the original bill shall be before the House for perfection and shall be considered and shall be handled on the floor by the original sponsor of the bill.

Order of Amendments

Rule 47. When amendments to any bill, motion or proposition are pending, they shall be voted on in the following order:

(1) Amendments to the amendment are disposed of before the substitute is taken up. Only one amendment to the amendment is in order at one time; but as rapidly as one is disposed of by rejection or incorporation as a part of the amendment, another is in order as long as any member desires to offer one.

(2) Amendments to the substitute are next voted on, and may be offered, one at a time, and as rapidly as one is disposed of by rejection or incorporation as a part of the substitute amendment, another is in order as long as any member desires to offer one, until the substitute amendment is adopted.

(3) The substitute amendment, as amended, is next voted on. If the substitute amendment is adopted, the underlying amendment to which it was offered shall not be voted upon, but the substitute amendment shall become part of the bill.

(4) The amendment is voted on last. If any substitute has not been agreed to, the vote comes on the amendment as amended.

(5) The House Committee Substitute is next voted upon, after opportunity for amendment. If the House Committee Substitute is adopted, there shall be an additional vote for the perfection of the bill, as amended.

(6) If a House Committee Substitute is not offered or adopted, the original House Bill is next voted upon, after opportunity for amendment.

Amendments Incorporated In Bill

Rule 48. All amendments adopted by the House to a bill originating in the House shall be incorporated in the bill as perfected, and the bill, as thus perfected, shall be printed for the use of the members before its final passage. The perfecting and printing shall be done under the supervision of the Chief Clerk who shall assure that the bill is truly perfected and the printed copies furnished to the members are correct.

If such a motion is sustained, the bill shall stand automatically referred to the Committee on Rules for further action thereon.

Previous Question

Rule 72. Any member may move the previous question. The motion shall be restated by the Speaker in this form: "Shall the question under immediate consideration be now put?" It may be moved like any other question but it shall only prevail when supported by a constitutional majority and until decided shall preclude amendments and debate. If the motion is sustained, the proponent of the matter under consideration shall be allowed one minute in which to make a closing statement before the House votes on the question. A failure to sustain the motion shall not take the matter under consideration from further consideration of the House; but the House shall proceed as if the motion had not been made.

Procedure for Motion to Reconsider

Rule 79. A constitutional majority is required to sustain any motion to reconsider. If the motion to reconsider is sustained the House shall proceed to the original question or motion immediately before proceeding to other questions; whereupon the original question shall be voted upon before any other business of the House is transacted. This shall not preclude further debate or amendment of the proposition, if otherwise appropriate. Any motion to reconsider having failed once shall not be reconsidered again, except to reconsider the vote by which an appropriation bill failed to pass. In the case of an appropriation bill, the motion to reconsider may be considered as many times as the House chooses.

Nothing herein contained shall prohibit a member from voting "Present" on a question, and such vote shall be recorded in the Journal. In the case of equal division the question shall be lost. In the event that a member's vote (or absence) is incorrectly recorded in the Journal, he/she shall file with the Chief Clerk an affidavit stating that he/she was in the chamber at the time the vote was taken, that he/she did in fact vote, that the vote (or absence) was incorrectly recorded and the correct vote that should have been recorded.

After the votes are registered the absentees shall be noted and upon demand of any member, another bell signifying that a call of absentees is being taken shall be sounded and a reasonable time shall be allowed after the sounding of the bell before the voting is closed.

Rule 92. In all cases where a rule of the House of Representatives refers to the "calling of the names of the members" or "calling of the ayes or noes" or "calling of the roll", such reference shall be understood to refer also to the "taking" of the vote by electronic roll call system. There shall be a taking of the vote by electronic roll call system on the motion of any one member which is seconded by four other members immediately standing. A vote by electronic roll call shall be limited to thirty minutes, except in the cases of quorum calls. Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

We give thanks to You, O Lord, because You instruct us. Even at night, at the end of our busy day, we sense Your leading. May we remain attentive to Your voice.

Guide us as we begin the serious and considerable task before us. We take nothing for granted.

But, we trust in You, Lord; we say, "You are God." The course of our life is in Your hand.

Grant us necessary times of rest, physical and spiritual, in order that we might begin each day refreshed and alert, motivated and prepared.

In the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

TENTH DAY, MONDAY, JANUARY 24, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, You are a stronghold for the oppressed, a stronghold in times of trouble. Therefore, we begin by giving thanks to You for Your marvelous works and abundant kindness shown towards us.

We recognize that we are but mere men and women, called specifically to the tasks at hand, but in great need of Your wisdom and revelation.

May we not be caught in schemes, which we have devised, which seem good on the surface, but only serves to gratify the flesh.

May our words and actions this week be pleasing in Your sight. May the work of our hand prosper in what is right and necessary for the days ahead.

Now unto You, who is able to keep us from stumbling; we give thanks, and it's in the strength and power of Your Son's name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the ninth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

HOUSE BILL WITH SENATE AMENDMENT

HCR 2, SA 1 - Dempsey

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

ELEVENTH DAY, TUESDAY, JANUARY 25, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

God of progress and Lord of growth, in the discussions and even the arguments that are possible here in this House, remind our representatives that their laws make an impact on all the people of Missouri.

If some may be enticed to contest or compare or show jealousy, help them reorganize their attention towards a balance found in truly first-rate legislation.

We know not only party loyalty, but also devotion to the truth and to the common good also moves their hearts. The improvement their legislation will bring to our state will derive much from sharp brains, broad minds, big hearts, and the bold confidence to stand for what each understands as true.

Help them towards that rightness which does not claim righteousness. We ask for Your inner light and energy and peace, this day, and throughout the Session. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Joe Paine, Denny Niebaum and Kevin Hornbeck.

The Journal of the tenth day was approved as printed.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden assumed the Chair.

The Sergeant-at-Arms announced the approach of the Honorable Matt Blunt, Governor of the State of Missouri. The Governor was duly escorted to the House Chamber and the Speaker's dais, where he delivered the following message to the Assembly in Joint Session.

STATE OF THE STATE ADDRESS BY GOVERNOR MATT BLUNT

Lieutenant Governor Kinder, Mr. Speaker, Mr. President Pro Tem, Distinguished State Officials, Judges of the Supreme Court, members of the General Assembly, Reverend Clergy, fellow Missourians:

I come before you this evening to share my vision for leading Missouri in a new direction. I am grateful for the opportunity to work with you to create a state government that respects the people and responds to their needs. It is my duty to recommend to you a budget for Fiscal Year 2006.

The past several years have been difficult for our state. Missouri's job loss crisis has hurt families in every region, reduced state revenue, and increased the demand on already strained social programs.

Missouri students and schools were caught in a political crossfire between the executive and legislative branches of government. Paralysis in the state Capitol caused local school boards to cut their budgets because they did not know how much money the state would provide.

State government's failure to reform the courts drove cherished family doctors and medical specialists from Missouri or out of practice altogether. Our current court system is unfair to doctors, but more importantly it harms every Missourian who struggles to find affordable medical care.

In spite of advances in technology and changes in the economy, state government still operates on an obsolete 1970s model. We have a typewriter government in an Internet age. Few efficient businesses and organizations are structured today the way they were 30 years ago. Missouri taxpayers are not getting full value for their hard-earned tax dollars.

My administration will focus on reversing this course and making Missouri a national leader and a model for other states.

First, so that all Missouri children can reach their full potential, we must make education our highest public policy and budget priority. Second, to spur economic growth, we must help Missouri's entrepreneurs and employers create and retain good, family-supporting jobs. Third, to enhance the quality of life, we must improve access to, and the affordability of, quality health care. Finally, to give taxpayers proper value for their hard-earned tax dollars we will build a modern and efficient state government.

That is why I already signed an Executive Order prohibiting the purchase of additional cell phones, non-emergency vehicles and office space. We have closed an unnecessary Washington, D.C. lobbying office.

It is also why I have asked Stephen Bradford and Warren Erdman to lead a commission designed to reevaluate the structure of our state government. Missourians are ready for these changes and more. I invite all of you, regardless of party, to join with me in providing a government worthy of the people of this great state.

Public education is an investment in our future. If it is to be our top public policy priority, then it must also be our highest budget priority. That is why my budget provides 170.6 million dollars in new funding for our public schools.

This is a 4.7% increase over last year. Tonight, I reaffirm my commitment that dollars approved for our classrooms will never be withheld under any circumstances whatsoever.

We must make this commitment to our school children in spite of anemic growth in the general revenue budget.

We must also make this commitment without any new job-killing taxes.

The budget that I submit to you tonight is based on the revenue that we will receive. This budget is not built upon tax increases. I do not, and will not, support increasing the tax burden on Missouri families. This means that we must make responsible and often difficult decisions in the rest of the budget.

My budget calls for significant reductions in spending for some state agencies and programs. It demands that state government live within the people's means, with no new job-destroying taxes that harm working families and diminish future economic opportunities.

We must meet our obligation to those who are truly in need of public assistance, but the current Medicaid program has grown far beyond the taxpayers' ability to pay. Rising health care costs and program expansions by previous administrations more than doubled expenditures in just six years. Without reform, Missouri will spend a larger percentage of our total budget on Medicaid than all but one other state. Without aggressive action we cannot properly fund education, or any of our other public policy priorities. With this in mind, I am proposing that we reform our state's Medicaid program. The program and eligibility changes included in this budget were not easily reached decisions, but we have put off the tough decisions for too long. Now is the time for decisive action. Missourians can no longer afford the second most expensive Medicaid program in the United States.

The reformed Medicaid Program will still spend over 5.3 billion dollars. That is 26% of our total state budget. Even after restructuring, we will still dedicate a larger share of our budget to Medicaid than all but 14 states. In other words, 35 other states will spend a smaller percentage of their budget on Medicaid even after we make these much needed changes. Working together, we must create a sustainable Medicaid program that is capable of providing medical care to those who truly need assistance.

There are well documented instances of individuals defrauding the Medicaid system and costing taxpayers millions of dollars each year. I am committed to stopping this theft of taxpayer dollars and I ask you to pass legislation requiring the Department of Social Services to conduct annual eligibility reviews of every Medicaid recipient. This and other anti-fraud measures could allow us to reclaim 75 million dollars in lost revenue for Missourians who truly need public assistance.

The Medicaid eligibility and program changes outlined in this budget will save 626 million dollars in state and federal revenue.

My budget protects all children and expectant mothers covered by Medicaid. Both of these initiatives are responsible uses of taxpayer dollars. Since 1998, the State Children's Health Insurance Program has extended health care coverage to more than 87,000 young Missourians. The CHIP's program is a proactive investment in the future of Missouri's children.

Over the past several years, the state's child welfare system has failed to adequately address the needs of children in its care. Child abuse and neglect offend the basic values of our state. We have a responsibility to provide safe settings for at-risk children and facilitate permanent placement for children who cannot return home. I propose that the state commit 9.5 million dollars to strengthen subsidized adoption and guardianship programs that find permanent homes for children in foster care. I also propose that we commit 7 million dollars to fund a rate increase for providers of residential treatment services for abused and neglected children.

I believe in the sanctity of life and in protecting unborn children. I support improved conscience protections for health-related professionals. I also support funding alternatives to abortion programs. And this year, I ask the Missouri General Assembly to pass legislation that prohibits the transporting of a minor across state lines for the purpose of obtaining an abortion without parental consent.

The Parents as Teachers program helps prevent child abuse, reduces the number of children in special education programs and ensures that young Missourians are better prepared to learn and advance to the next grade when they start school. This initiative has strengthened the essential bond between parents and their children in thousands of Missouri families. My budget also includes a 5 million dollar increase in the Parents as Teachers program.

The A+ Schools Program encourages high school students to stay in school, make career plans and graduate with the skills and knowledge required for career success. This program provides two years of community college education for students who meet specific requirements. I believe in the A+ program and my budget includes a 4 million dollar increase for this initiative.

Missouri ranks last in combating youth smoking. Most adult smokers start as teens. Missouri has not spent a single penny that we have received from the tobacco settlement to help young people kick the habit or prevent others from starting. This is wrong and my budget sets aside $875,000 as a first step to reduce smoking by our young people.

To provide relief and assistance to Missouri seniors, I have allocated funds to continue Missouri's Senior Rx program. This will give us time to analyze recently published federal rules for the Medicare prescription drug benefit. We must determine if, and then perhaps how, the state can complement the new federal prescription drug benefit.

In addition, to provide better in-home service care for seniors in their homes, I have included a $2 per hour wage increase for home health care providers.

Under my budget, Missourians with developmental disabilities would enjoy a higher quality of life in a less restrictive environment, instead of in a state-operated institution. I support plans to expand private-sector community placements through closure of the state-operated Bellefontaine Habilitation Center. These actions will save the state 13.8 million dollars and benefit Missourians with developmental disabilities.

This budget also calls for a reduction of over 1,000 of our state's 60,000 full-time government positions. These positions are spread all across our state, but to balance the budget, additional reductions beyond those that I have specifically identified are necessary. Such reductions must be achieved through better management without harming vital state programs. I am committed to rooting out wasteful spending and I have tasked my department directors with developing budget strategies for Fiscal Year 2006. My budget is based upon a 20% reduction in discretionary spending. Reductions in Fiscal Year 2006 will be part of a smaller core budget in the following years. This action is necessary if we are to increase funding for our public schools and hold the line on taxes.

Missouri is blessed with dedicated public servants. Together we will be tested as we work to reduce costs and deliver better service. Missourians want fair pay for their employees. We should not wait until an election year to do the right thing and I propose a 1% pay increase for all of Missouri's state employees. This does not apply to elected officials.

No new taxes are proposed in my budget. Missouri families pay enough in taxes. They want their state government to live within its means and to make difficult choices, just as they do, when times are tight.

Legislative Priorities

Now, I am pleased to present my legislative initiatives for better schools, a stronger economy, better health care and other important needs.

My number one legislative priority is public education. Few among us tonight in the State Capitol or at home believe the current school funding formula is acceptable. It fails to distribute public funds fairly and has created a system of have's and have not's.

Prior to being sworn into office, I invited teachers, administrators and legislative leaders from both sides of the aisle to an education summit. I said then, and I believe today, that working in a cooperative spirit we can craft a new school funding formula this legislative session that positively affects the lives of young Missourians.

I would like to introduce you to two Missouri students, Caroline Greenberg and Josh Wimpey. Both go to a public school. They are both loved by their families. They are equal in the eyes of God. They should be equal in the eyes of the state. However, one of their school districts spends $13,376 per year per child and the other one spends $5,175. That is neither right nor fair.

It is our responsibility as elected officials to fix this problem. Missourians expect and deserve no less.

We are all striving to find a formula that meets the needs of Caroline, Josh and all of our children. The consensus we reach should be based on principles that will offer fundamental change. First, we should allow some school districts to opt out of the formula. In exchange for no state assistance they will free themselves from most state regulations. This will free up resources for our neediest schools. Second, we should distribute gambling and lottery revenue to school districts on a per pupil allocation. This will allow locally elected school boards to determine how to spend these dollars. Third, we should give school districts a new local option to use either the sales or income tax instead of the property tax. Finally, we must ensure that the special education needs of Missouri students are carefully considered. Again, education is my number one priority and a new formula must be crafted to ensure every Missouri child receives a world-class education.

A college education is increasingly a requirement for success in the workplace. Therefore, my budget maintains the current level of funding for our state's colleges and universities.

To help families with children who wish to continue their education beyond high school, I look forward to working with Treasurer Steelman to expand Missouri's 529 plan, commonly referred to as MOST. The MOST fund's overall performance is of great concern to parents investing in the program. Currently, this program is operated by one fund manager and investors have few choices. I believe that Missouri should offer parents other options and that adding this element of competition will improve the fund's overall results.

To create greater opportunity for all Missourians we must improve our entrepreneurial climate.

High workers' compensation insurance premiums are costing Missouri jobs. In 2003, premiums increased by 13.8%. These premiums detract from an employers' ability to reinvest and grow his or her business and to hire new workers. Some Missouri companies have discovered that they can realize significant workers' compensation savings by moving to a neighboring state. The same problems plague even our public schools. In 2001, the Springfield Public School District spent $451,000 on workers' compensation insurance. In 2004, the District spent 1.4 million dollars - a nearly one million dollar increase. These are funds that District could have used to hire 24 additional teachers. Our workers' compensation system must ensure that every injured worker is fully and adequately compensated for work related injuries. But, we cannot afford a system that places us at a competitive disadvantage with other states. Missouri cannot effectively compete with other states for good, family-supporting jobs unless we address this problem.

We need to examine our regulation of telecommunications companies to take into account the changes in technology and realities of the market. The telecommunications industry is critical to the continued expansion of Missouri's economy. Telecommunications technology is changing rapidly and the marketplace is fast outpacing regulation. While making these changes, we must ensure that competitors are treated equally, that investment in infrastructure is encouraged and that consumers receive the benefits of competition.

Assisting our citizens in their efforts to preserve and improve their health is a critical mission of government. In recent years, our state has not given our family caregivers the protection they deserve from out of control medical malpractice insurance costs. This crisis hits every region of our state.

Now, I would like you to join me in welcoming Dr. Anthony Heit who is an OB-GYN. Because of the rising costs of medical malpractice insurance, he was forced to relocate his 13-physician practice to Kansas. What has happened to Dr. Heit, his partners and most importantly his patients has happened all across our state. Rural communities and entire counties lack doctors who will deliver babies. In our largest cities, hospitals and trauma centers have closed due to the loss of skilled specialists. The current litigation climate has created a healthcare crisis, and we must implement real reform now. Thank you for being here tonight Dr. Heit. I look forward to working with this legislature to make the much needed changes that will allow you, and other medical professionals, to return to our great state.

A comprehensive litigation reform bill should include limits on punitive and non-economic damages, strict venue restrictions and increased sanctions against unscrupulous attorneys who file frivolous lawsuits. I support a non-economic damage cap of $250,000. This reasonable cap has been a part of the solution in other states that have effectively addressed this problem. This bill should also eliminate joint and several liability, a rule that runs counter to fairness and common sense. Under the current system, a party can be forced to pay 100% of a settlement even if they are only 1% liable. I encourage you to pass a comparative fault rule that makes each defendant liable only for that portion of the damages for which they are directly responsible.

The same litigation reform that will improve health care will also help Missouri's small businesses create jobs and economic opportunity.

Strong economic growth also requires a safe and modern transportation system. Keep in mind as you consider possible changes to Missouri's transportation governance that MoDOT is a total transportation agency. I propose adding two members to the Transportation Commission—one representing air and mass transit and one representing freight and river transit. This change would create a total transportation emphasis within the Commission. Let me also assure you that my administration will keep faith with Missouri voters and fully implement Amendment 3. We will ensure that every tax dollar collected for transportation will be used to improve Missouri's transportation infrastructure.

Agriculture is the foundation of Missouri's economy. It is no accident that we are the best fed and best clothed nation in the world. It is because of the hard work and dedication of farmers all across the country and particularly right here in Missouri. Missouri farm families will benefit from many of the initiatives we are discussing tonight.

I support full funding for the bio-diesel and ethanol incentive funds, which will help position Missouri as a national leader in the fast-growing renewable fuels industry. This action will create new jobs in rural Missouri and lead to improved air quality for every Missourian.

Tonight, I assure communities all across our state that my administration will fully implement the Missouri Rural Economic Stimulus Act, which allows rural communities and counties to knock down barriers and create cutting edge agricultural opportunities.

Protecting Missouri families from violent criminals and ensuring that law enforcement officials have the support they need are two of the most important responsibilities of any Governor and General Assembly.

Missouri leads the nation in the production of methamphetamine. In 2003, Missouri had more than twice as many meth incidents as any other state. Too many of our fellow citizens have suffered its ravages. Too many law enforcement officers have been killed or injured in the line of duty trying to fight this deadly epidemic.

I encourage you to pass legislation similar to a law in Oklahoma that has led to an 80% reduction in meth-related incidents. It would require that certain methamphetamine ingredients be purchased only through pharmacies and that customers' names be recorded. Such legislation will help stop methamphetamine producers. The production of methamphetamine is an environmental hazard. It creates dangers for Missouri law enforcement. That is why we must extend Heart and Lung protection to Missouri's law enforcement officers similar to that which has been provided to Missouri's firefighters.

I am honored that one of St. Louis' finest has joined us here this evening. Sgt. John McLaughlin is one of Missouri's law enforcement heroes who keep our families safe. Sgt. McLaughlin, a 13-year veteran of the force, has been directly involved in working with neighborhoods in St. Louis besieged and threatened by crime for the past four years. He is helping to form a bond with residents and ensure that police and communities work together to stamp out the dangers that force people from neighborhoods - whether it be crimes against property or the constant presence of drug dealers. This kind of personal approach creates a partnership between law enforcement and the people they are bound to protect, and makes our streets safer for everyone. Thank you for being here tonight Sgt. McLaughlin and for your service to the people of St. Louis.

Patriotism is reflected in the faces of so many Missourians. Please join me in thanking those 562,000 brave Missouri veterans and their families for their service to America. As Governor, I will never forget the sacrifices of our veterans and we will work hard to meet the needs of veterans' homes, cemeteries and veteran service programs.

We also want to recognize the current sacrifice and commitment of Missouri's citizen soldiers and their families. Missourians stand in defense of freedom around the globe. Two of Missouri's heroes are here with us tonight. Please join me in thanking Lt. Colonel A.J. Probst and Sgt. Cindy Smart. Lt. Colonel Probst was part of the team that helped liberate Afghanistan and create an independent army to defend its war-torn borders. Lt. Colonel Probst was also able to watch as the first female ran for President of Afghanistan, a country that only a few years ago would not allow a woman to speak without the approval of her husband. Thank you Lt. Colonel Probst.

Even as daily mortar attacks struck her base camp in Tikrit, not far from where Saddam Hussein was flushed from his hole in the ground, Sgt. Cindy Smart of the 235th Engineer Detachment supported our fighting troops. Thank you for being here tonight Sgt. Smart and for your steadfast service to our country.

We must continue to be mindful of the sacrifices being made by Missouri's guard and reserve members and their families. Let us never forget and honor always the ultimate sacrifices of the 29 Missourians who have given their lives in defense of our freedoms since March of 2003.

As we all know, there are many challenges before us, but where there are challenges there are also opportunities. The decisions reflected in my budget are not the easy decisions, but they are the right ones for our state. I will not lead you down a path of denial. We can no longer hide from our problems. My duty is to lead our state towards our full potential. I will not shirk this responsibility. I ask all of you to rise above partisanship and join in this great effort. Working together, we can provide every Missouri child with a world class education, improve access to affordable health care, provide a climate that helps entrepreneurs create good, family-supporting jobs, reevaluate and retool the structure of our government and hold the line on job-killing taxes.

The people expect us to work together, as partners, to bring positive change to Missouri. As Thomas Jefferson reminds us, not every difference of opinion is a difference of principle. I invite each of you to join with me in a partnership for progress that will benefit all the people of Missouri.

Thank you for allowing me to address you this evening. May God continue to bless each one of you and may God bless the Great State of Missouri.

The Joint Session was dissolved by Senator Shields.

Speaker Jetton resumed the Chair.

(1) Censure - A sanction which recognizes the respondent's conduct constituted a legal or moral wrong, and which shall include punishment in the form of denying privileges of office, which recommendation is included as part of the committee's report and requires the presence of the respondent in the chamber during consideration and vote by the entire House on such resolution.

(2) Letter of Reproval - A sanction which expresses disapproval of conduct based on the appropriateness of such conduct by a legislator, regardless of whether the conduct constitutes a legal or moral wrong and is included as part of the committee's report.

(3) Reprimand - A sanction which recognizes the respondent's conduct constituted a legal or moral wrong and which may include punishment in the form of denying privileges of the office, which recommendation is included as part of the committee's report, is issued by the Speaker and the recommendation for reprimand is made a public record.

RULE 3. Quorum

A quorum exists when a majority of the members of the Committee are present.

RULE 4. Form of Complaints

A. All complaints filed with the Speaker against a member of the House shall be made by a member. The complaints shall be confidential and shall be referred to the Committee on Ethics within ten (10) days and shall be in writing and under oath, setting forth in simple, concise and direct statements:

(1) The name and legal address of the member or members acting as complainant;

(2) The name of the member of the House alleged to have engaged in the commission of a crime, misconduct, willful neglect of duty, corruption in office or other acts constituting ethical misconduct. "Misconduct" means:

- (a) Any conduct constituting a legal or moral wrong which materially impairs the member's ability to perform the duties of his office or substantially impairs public confidence in the General Assembly;
 - (b) Any conduct constituting a conflict of interest under Chapter 105, RSMo;
 - (c) The intentional filing of a false complaint or the filing of a complaint in reckless disregard of the truth.
- (3) The nature of the alleged crime, misconduct, neglect, corruption or other unethical act, including when applicable, the specific law, rule, regulation or ethical standard violated;
- (4) The facts alleged to have given rise to the violation; and
- (5) Where the facts are alleged upon the information and belief of the complainant, the complaint shall so state and set forth the basis for such information and belief.

B. All documents in the possession of the complainant that are relevant to and in support of the allegations shall be appended to the complaint.

RULE 5. Initial Examination of the Complaint by the Committee

A. Within thirty (30) days of the assignment of the complaint by the Speaker, the Committee shall determine if it is in compliance with Rule 4 of these Rules, and whether on the face of the complaint, the allegations contained therein are within the jurisdiction of the Committee, and if so, whether the allegations merit proceeding to a preliminary hearing. The complainant shall not act as a member of the Committee at a hearing in which the complainant is likely to be called as a necessary witness. A respondent shall not act as a member of the Committee for purposes of his complaint.

B. Complaints determined not to be in compliance with Rule 4 of these Rules shall be returned to the complainant with a general statement that it is not in compliance with the Rules of Procedure. The complaint may be resubmitted in the proper form.

C. Once a determination has been made that the complaint complies with Rule 4 of these Rules, a majority of the Committee appointed shall vote by roll call to either:

- (1) Defer action pending completion of any other administrative, disciplinary, commission, or judicial proceeding;
- (2) Proceed to a preliminary hearing;
- (3) Dismiss the complaint.

D. In determining whether or not to proceed the Committee shall consider the following:

- (1) The credible evidence contained in the complaint or appended thereto of the commission of a crime, misconduct, willful neglect of duty, corruption in office, or other acts violating applicable ethical standards;
- (2) Other administrative or disciplinary action by other interested bodies;
- (3) Criminal investigation, Missouri Ethics Commission proceeding, or judicial proceedings, either civil or criminal; and
- (4) Other relevant circumstances that would justify expediting, declining or deferring action by the Committee.

E. Complaints determined to be in compliance with Rule 4 of these Rules and accepted for a preliminary hearing shall be transmitted to the respondent with a copy of the Rules of Procedure and notice in writing that the respondent has twenty-one (21) calendar days to respond to the complaint either by way of answer or motion pursuant to Rule 6 of these Rules. The complainant shall also be notified, in writing, of the action of the Committee. Examination of the complaint and the determination of Rule 5.C. shall be conducted in a closed meeting.

RULE 6. Answers and Motions

A. If the Committee determines that the complaint merits proceeding to a preliminary hearing, the respondent shall have twenty-one (21) calendar days in which to respond to the complaint by way of answer or motion, unless this time period is waived by the respondent. Any answer or motion shall be in writing, signed by the respondent and his counsel, if he has one, and shall be limited to the following:

(1) An admission or denial under oath, of the allegations set forth in the complaint, including negative and affirmative defenses, and any other relevant information, including supporting evidence which the respondent may desire to submit;

(2) An objection to the jurisdiction of the Committee to investigate the complaint; or

(3) An objection to the participation of any member of the Committee in an investigation of the complaint on the grounds that the member cannot render an impartial and unbiased decision in the case. The majority of the members present shall rule on the objection to the participation of any member of the Committee. A temporary replacement shall be made to serve on the Committee on Ethics for all actions concerning a particular complaint for any member of the Committee who is prevented from acting on a complaint under these rules.

B. Any motion submitted pursuant to this rule is not in lieu of an answer and shall be accompanied by a memorandum of points and authorities. Answers or motions not submitted within the twenty-one (21) calendar-day period shall not be considered by the Committee.

C. The Chairman of the Committee shall pass upon such motions as soon as practicable and notice of the decision shall be furnished to the respondent and the complainant. A motion to quash a subpoena shall be decided by the Chairman of the Committee.

D. Time limitations imposed by this Rule may be extended when, in the discretion of the Chairman, such extension would facilitate a fair and complete inquiry and may be shortened when the Chairman determines that there are special circumstances compelling expedition, and upon twenty-four (24) hours notice of said action to the respondent and the claimant.

E. In the event that a special counsel is retained by the Committee, the attorney-client privilege is applicable to the Committee and not to the House.

RULE 7. Preliminary Hearings

A. A preliminary hearing may be held to hear arguments based on the pleadings submitted in the case. The preliminary hearing shall be an open meeting. The committee shall provide the complainant and the respondent or counsel for the complainant and respondent an opportunity to present, orally or in writing, a statement, which shall be under oath or affirmation, regarding the allegations and any other relevant questions arising out of the pleadings. A Complainant or respondent who is represented by counsel shall not be questioned in the absence of counsel unless an explicit waiver is obtained.

B. The committee shall require that testimony be given under oath or affirmation. The form of the oath or affirmation shall be: "Do you solemnly swear (or affirm) that the testimony you will give before this Committee in the matter now under consideration will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth (so help you God)?" The oath or affirmation shall be administered by the Chairman or Committee member designated by him to administer oaths. Members of the committee shall be given an opportunity to question the complainant and respondent or counsel for the complainant or respondent following the opening statements.

C. At the conclusion of the preliminary hearing, a majority of the Committee shall vote by roll call to either:

(1) Dismiss the complaint, or

(2) Proceed by

- (a) undertaking an investigative hearing; or
- (b) deciding the case based upon the preliminary hearing.

A decision based upon a preliminary hearing shall require the consent of the respondent.

D. If the committee decides to make a summary decision of the case and the respondent accepts this disposition the Committee may, by a majority vote, recommend one of the following sanctions:

- (1) Letter of reproval;
- (2) Reprimand; or
- (3) Censure.

RULE 8. Investigative Hearings

A. An investigative hearing may be held on the record to receive evidence upon which to base findings, conclusions, and recommendations, if any, to the House. The Committee may require, by subpoena or otherwise, or by subpoena duces tecum, the attendance and testimony of such witnesses and the production of such books, records, correspondence, memorandums, papers and documents as it deems necessary. The Committee may obtain a court-issued subpoena in the event that any person refuses to obey the subpoena issued by the Committee.

B. Prior to setting a hearing date and issuing subpoenas for witnesses, the Committee shall resolve the scope and purpose of the hearings. A copy of this statement of scope and purpose shall be furnished to all witnesses. During the course of the hearings the Committee may expand or contract the scope in light of evidence received.

C. The order of the investigative hearing shall be as follows:

(1) The Chairman shall open the hearing by stating the Committee's authority to conduct the investigation, the purpose of the investigation and its scope.

(2) The complainant and the respondent or counsel for the complainant and respondent shall be permitted to make opening statements. Such opening statements shall not exceed fifteen minutes.

(3) Testimony from witnesses and other evidence pertinent to the matter under investigation shall be received in the following order:

- (a) Witnesses and other evidence offered by the complainant;
- (b) Witnesses and other evidence offered by the respondent;
- (c) Witnesses and other evidence offered by the Committee staff; and
- (d) Rebuttal witnesses.

(4) The Chairman or his designee shall examine each witness. The Committee members may then question the witness. The respondent or his counsel may then cross-examine the witness. Redirect or recross examination may be permitted in the Chairman's discretion. With respect to witnesses offered by the respondent, a witness shall be examined first by the respondent or his counsel, if he has one, and then may be cross-examined by the complainant or his counsel, if he has one, and then may be cross-examined by the Chairman or his designee. Committee members may then question the witness. Redirect and recross examination may be permitted in the Chairman's discretion.

D. Testimony of all witnesses shall be taken under oath. The form of the oath shall be: "Do you solemnly swear or affirm that the testimony you will give before this Committee in the matter now under consideration will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?" The oath shall be administered by the Chairman or Committee member designated by him to administer oaths.

RULE 9. Admissibility of Evidence

A. The object of the hearings shall be to ascertain the truth. Any evidence that is relevant and probative shall be admissible, unless privileged or unless the Constitution otherwise requires its exclusion. Objections going only to the weight that should be given to evidence will not justify its exclusion.

B. The Chairman or other member presiding shall rule upon any question of admissibility of testimony or evidence presented to the Committee. The Chairman or other member presiding may limit the presentation of repetitious evidence. Rulings shall be final unless reversed or modified by a majority vote of the Committee members present.

C. At an investigative hearing, the burden of proof is on the complainant with respect to each count to establish the facts alleged therein clearly and convincingly by the evidence that he introduces.

RULE 10. Witnesses

A. A subpoena to a witness shall be served sufficiently in advance of his scheduled appearance to allow him a reasonable period of time, as determined by the Committee, to prepare for the hearing and to employ counsel should he so desire.

B. Except as otherwise specifically authorized by the Chairman, no member of the Committee or staff shall make public the name of any witness subpoenaed by the Committee before his scheduled appearance.

C. Witnesses at investigative hearings may be accompanied by their counsel for the purpose of advising them concerning their constitutional rights and to raise objections to procedures or to the admissibility of testimony and evidence. Counsel for a witness other than the respondent shall not be permitted to engage in oral argument with the Committee. After a witness has testified, his counsel may submit to the Committee, in writing, any questions he wishes propounded to his client and any request for additional witnesses or other evidence. Such request may be granted in the discretion of the Committee.

D. The respondent may apply to the Committee for the issuance of subpoenas for the appearance of witnesses or the production of documents on his behalf. The application shall be granted upon good cause shown by the respondent that the proposed testimony or evidence is relevant and not otherwise available. The application shall be denied if not made at a reasonable time or if the testimony or evidence would be merely cumulative.

E. The respondent is entitled to present witnesses in his behalf. However, the Chairman may limit such testimony when, in his discretion, he finds the testimony is repetitious or cumulative.

F. Each witness subpoenaed by the Committee shall be reimbursed for those reasonable expenses approved by the Committee.

G. Each witness shall be furnished a printed copy of the Rules of Procedure and the pertinent provisions of the Rules of the House applicable to the rights of witnesses.

H. Within ten (10) calendar days before the scheduled investigative hearing, the Chairman shall notify the respondent, in writing, of the witnesses that are to appear before the Committee. Within five (5) calendar days before the scheduled investigative hearing, the respondent shall notify the Committee, in writing, of the witnesses that are to appear in his behalf. Additional witnesses may be brought before the Committee, in the discretion of the Chairman or other member presiding and upon good cause, if their whereabouts or existence were unknown to the respondent at the time for submission of the witness list to Committee.

RULE 11. Findings, Conclusions and Recommendations

A. At the completion of the preliminary hearing or investigative hearings, the Committee, by a majority vote of its members, shall, within forty-five (45) days, adopt a report stating its findings and conclusions on the complaint. The report shall be filed with the Chief Clerk of the House and shall be printed in the House Journal. In the event the Committee finds that the complaint is not well-founded, the report shall so state, and shall include a copy of a Letter of Reproval if the Committee authorized such sanction. In the event the Committee finds that the complaint is well-founded, the report shall state the Committee's recommendation in a resolution appended thereto.

B. The resolution shall state the Committee's findings and conclusions on each allegation in the complaint with the recommendation that the House:

- (1) Expel the member as provided in Article III, Section 18 of the Missouri Constitution;
- (2) Punish the member as provided in Article III, Section 18 of the Missouri Constitution, by reprimand on the adoption of the resolution, or by censure by the Speaker in open session; or
- (3) Take no further action, stating the reasons therefor.

RULE 12. Matters Not Covered in These Rules of Procedure

The Rules of Procedure of the United States House of Representatives Committee on Standards of Official Conduct of the 109th Congress shall be taken as guidelines in deciding questions, issues, and other matters not otherwise provided for in these Rules of Procedure, except that the Rules of the Missouri House of Representatives governing the party representation on committees shall apply to this Committee.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FOURTEENTH DAY, MONDAY, JANUARY 31, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, You are our portion and our cup [of blessing]; You hold our future in Your hand.

O how we revel in the democratic process and appreciate our freedom to do so. May the newly formed governments of this world come to experience and appreciate democracy as we do. May we never take it for granted.

We are always aware of Your presence and because You are at our right hand, we will not be shaken nor will we be sidetracked from the assignment before us.

May we be those who walk in our integrity, do what is right in Your sight, speak the truth from our heart, refuse to criticize one another, do not harbor evil in our heart, and who keep our word whatever the cost.

May Your grace be sufficient for all we do.

In the majestic name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

There was a moment of silence in memory of former Representative Maurice Lawson.

The Journal of the thirteenth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

SENATE BILL FOR THIRD READING

SB 176, E.C. - Deeken

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTEENTH DAY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

Heavenly Father, we begin this month asking You for grace and insight. We likewise ask a blessing on the little people of our state, the little people of our constituencies – children in schools, the sick in hospital or home, the aged and elderly, the homeless, single parents, anyone suffering discrimination of any kind, the hopelessly poor.

This grand Chamber is here for them as well as for the healthy and the fortunate. Let the work done here this day be motivated by care for the entirety of our state. We bring You this need and all our private needs in trust and faith, longing for true peace and justice. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Thomas William Smith III, Joshua Farrar, David Bickel, Jenah Bickel, Faith Bickel, Laney Rabun and Stevie Rabun.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTEENTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, You reveal the path of life to us; in Your presence is abundant joy; in Your right hand are eternal pleasures. May we not stray from that path.

May we experience the joy of believing, the joy of serving, and the joy of abundant life.

By Your grace and mercy, we avoid repeating the mistakes of the past. Our steps are on Your paths; our feet have not slipped. We call on You, Heavenly Father, because You hear our prayer, listen closely to us and answer us.

May our striving not be with one another, but against the status quo and the obstacles that prevent true growth and progress for our state. May we provoke one another to good works and avoid proud speech.

Now may Your grace rest and abide with us all.

In the everlasting name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Jared Warner, David Weybright and Alonzo Johnson.

The Journal of the fifteenth day was approved as corrected.

STATE OF TRANSPORTATION ADDRESS

Pete Rahn
February 2, 2005

Lt. Governor, Mr. Speaker, Mr. President Pro Tem, Distinguished State Officials, Members of the 93rd General Assembly, Members of the Missouri Highways and Transportation Commission, and Citizens of Missouri:

Transportation is vital to the great state of Missouri. I'm sure you're impressed that I have figured that out in just four and a half short months.

Transportation allows the lifeblood of commerce to flow to every extremity of America and the world.

- It accounts for 11 percent of our nation's Gross Domestic Product - second only to health care.
- U.S. households spend up to 19 percent of their income on transportation - second only to housing.
- Nine cents of every dollar spent by consumers on manufactured goods is for transportation.
- 14 cents of every dollar spent by consumers on agricultural products is for transportation.

Unfortunately, the factors that take a toll on this essential system keep increasing. And it's important to note, our highways and even the Interstates were never designed to accommodate the types and volumes of traffic they encounter today.

- Large trucks on our highways increased by 132 percent between 1990 and 2000.
- The growth of "just-in-time inventory" with its dependence on rapid shipping will cause freight tonnage on our highways to increase by 70 percent in the next 15 years.
- International trade, which obviously depends on transportation infrastructure, grew from 900 billion dollars in 1990 to 2.2 trillion dollars in 2000.
- The average American spends 443 hours annually behind the wheel of an automobile.

Nationally, these things have stretched our transportation system to its limit.

- 46 percent of our National Highway System and 90 percent of our urban interstates will be beyond capacity by 2020.
- Congestion in our urban areas accounts for 4.5 billion hours of delay and 6.8 billion gallons of wasted fuel every year.

So, what about Missouri?

- We have the nation's third worst pavement conditions.
- Of Missouri's major highways, 54 percent of the pavement is in fair to poor condition.
- We are fourth in the nation in the number of deficient bridges on our system.
- Additionally, I-70 is in a state of near crisis. I-70, now almost 50 years old, was designed for a 20-year lifespan.
- This problem promises to get worse. Traffic on I-70 is expected to double by the year 2030.
- Meanwhile, I-44 is an I-70 just waiting to happen. We observe many of the same problems on this vital interstate as on I-70.

These troubling conditions are easy to understand when you consider that:

- We have the seventh largest highway system in the country.
- In fact, you could combine all of the state highways in Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas and it still would not equal the size of Missouri's system.
- Yet we are 42nd in the amount of money we spend on that system per mile.
- Of the eight states surrounding Missouri, only Arkansas spends less per mile of highway than we do.
- Our fuel tax is tied for the 10th lowest compared to all other states.
- In fact, our fuel tax of 17 cents - adjusted for inflation - is worth just over 8 cents today in purchasing power.
- For example, the first fuel tax from 1924 of 2 cents would have to be 21 cents today to buy as much.
- At the same time, we rank seventh in the number of bridges on our state system -- more than 10,000.
- And we are first in the nation when it comes to major river bridges. In fact, you could combine about 25 other states and they still wouldn't have as many as us.
- Additionally, Missouri is 15th in the number of vehicle miles traveled with more than 68 billion per year.

We certainly face a challenge, but I know that together we can meet it. The importance of transportation to Missouri is too great not to act. If transportation allows the lifeblood of commerce to flow, then Missouri, at the center of the world's largest economy, should be the heart pumping that blood to every part of the world resulting in economic prosperity right here at home.

Fellow Missourians, our state transportation system is deficient, but your state transportation department is committed to fixing it. We are energized by an optimistic vision for the future. Your MoDOT today is a vibrant agency that cares deeply about the people we serve. We have challenged and empowered every employee to continuously improve the level of service each provides to every Missourian.

I can tell you, the most effective ideas for improving this department will come from the collaboration of our entire transportation team. I want the people closest to the problems to be the ones to solve them because they want to, not because they were told to. Every crew worker who wields a shovel, every engineer who picks up a set of plans and every clerk who works at a computer should believe they “own” their job.

Authority to make necessary changes and improvements will not be concentrated here in Jefferson City. It will be dispersed to every corner of this great state. This approach is commonly referred to as decentralization. I call it common sense.

With this empowerment will come a new kind of accountability. A new kind of credibility. A new kind of state agency.

We will be a model for what today's state government should be - efficient, streamlined, forward-thinking, results-driven and customer-oriented. I have heard many of you say that you have seen a lot of improvement in MoDOT over the past few years. To that we say, “Thank you, but you ain't seen nothin' yet.”

We will be a shining star in your state government galaxy.

Now, I know what you're thinking, “this is the show-me state. You're going to have to show us.” Well, we intend to. We will be a transparent organization. You will see what we do well. You will see what we don't do so well and you will see what we do to get better.

MoDOT will be an open house. Our walls will be solid, but you will be able to see everything we do. Information about how we spend your money, our goals for improving transportation and our progress toward these goals will be distributed to statewide officials, lawmakers, the media and anyone else who wants it.

Plus, this information will be made available on our Internet site for the whole worldwide web to see. By conducting business in full view of the taxpayers of this state, we will encourage all Missourians to hold us accountable and to propose transportation solutions.

Our transparent house, however, will not be fragile. It will not be built on the shifting sands of promises we can't deliver or commitments we can't keep. It will be built on the solid rock of sound business practices, wise use of taxpayer dollars and extensive public input. MoDOT's house will be strong!

And, since you don't build a house starting with the top floor, the foundation of our house will be the results we deliver and the performance measures we track, which will produce an unparalleled level of accountability.

Last year from this dais, many of you heard that a new day had dawned at MoDOT. This year I reaffirm that statement. Morning has broken. The sun is rising on our transportation horizon. And thousands of rays of sunlight in the form of MoDOT employees and our citizen-partners are illuminating the morning sky with a message of cooperation and progress.

Ladies and gentlemen, can you tell that I am thrilled to be your director of transportation and to have the opportunity to address you today? I am thrilled to call myself a Missourian. I am thrilled to work with such dedicated public servants. And I am thrilled at the possibilities of our transportation future.

And, it really is an exciting time for transportation in Missouri. On November 2, 2004, four out of five voters in this state said they wanted their roads fixed and they trusted MoDOT to do it.

Since then we've worked extremely hard to identify needs and get projects under contract. Today, we're saying to Missourians that MoDOT is ready to deliver, and the improvements will be noticeable and quick.

We come to you with a shared vision of smoother, safer roads that will be built sooner. Missourians have sent a clear message that they want smoother, safer highways. Today, we send a clear message that smoother, safer highways are exactly what they will get.

Therefore, we have embarked on an ambitious initiative for our transportation future -- ambitious to the tune of more than 1.7 billion dollars in vital improvements.

360 million dollars will fund 177 projects in the Smooth Roads Initiative - the first element of our Smoother, Safer, Sooner plan. This initiative will provide 2,200 miles of better pavement for a smoother drive, as well as a brighter, more visible roadway to help on stormy nights, and safer shoulders with rumble strips, all by the end of 2007. Today, three quarters of those miles are in fair to poor condition.

The highway miles included in the Smooth Roads Initiative account for 60 percent of all traffic on the state system. These roads include interstates, major highways in the metropolitan areas and highway corridors connecting smaller towns throughout our state. 86 percent of Missouri's population lives within 10 miles of these roads.

Amendment 3 will also allow for bond financing to accelerate more than 430 million dollars in high-priority construction projects. These 55 projects, which comprise the second element of the Smoother, Safer, Sooner program, were already scheduled to begin in the next five years, but work can now begin much sooner - several years sooner, in many cases. Speeding up these projects will have an enormously positive impact on the safety and economic well being of our citizens.

Examples of major projects to be built sooner include:

- Rehabilitation of the Route 67 Missouri River Bridge crossing in St. Louis
- Major congestion relief work on the Triangle in Kansas City
- Completion of Route 61 four laning in northeast Missouri
- And completion of the four-lane Route 71 corridor south of Joplin

The third element of Amendment 3 will be determined later this spring after working with our planning partners statewide, when 1.3 billion dollars in additional bond-financed projects will be announced. These will be new projects not currently in our five-year plan. Our goal is to invest these funds in projects that will have a substantial impact on our overall transportation system.

And I want to stress -- every dollar of Amendment 3 revenues will go to our roads. No new buildings. No added personnel.

Our plans do not center solely on Amendment 3 funding, however.

We support efforts to allocate more money for other transportation modes such as aviation, rail, waterways and public transit. Legislation is expected to be introduced to direct the sales taxes that highway construction contractors are currently paying, and which amount to a mini-diversion, toward multi-modal services.

The multi-modal plan would allow us to improve our airports that are key to economic development throughout this state. It would increase access to Missouri's railroads and river barges. And it would allow for more public transportation options in both our large cities and small towns by building facilities and helping to match Federal dollars for capital equipment purchases.

Our plan is a total transportation plan. It is ambitious, but we are ambitious. We will confront the realities of the present and anticipate the challenges of the future. We will seek to unite based on the priorities of where we live, which is in Missouri. We will listen to all Missourians and we will seek to do what is best for all of Missouri.

MoDOT is excited about the opportunity to better serve all Missourians. I see excitement within MoDOT that I've been told has not existed for many years. We are excited to be able to do the things we like to do - fix our roads, help people and, ultimately, save lives.

We like to build roads. We like to delight our customers with smooth roadways, four-lane highways, brighter striping, better signs, wider shoulders and lots of other improvements.

Amendment 3 will help, but it will not solve all our problems. In fact, the money from Amendment 3 will only move us from 44th lowest nationally in revenue per mile to 42nd lowest. That is not a big jump. We will, however, do more with that two spot increase than you would have ever thought.

You will see the results. You will feel the results. And you will hear about the results from your constituents who will be confident that their tax dollars are going toward their intended purpose - better highways.

We, at MoDOT, also like to help people. Martin Luther King, Jr., often told the story of two travelers journeying down a dangerous road. Seeing a man needing help, the first traveler said, "What will happen to me if I stop and help the man in need?" The second traveler said, "What will happen to the man in need if I do not stop to help?"

Many MoDOT employees have decided to stop and help, going above and beyond the call of duty to help their fellow Missourians.

- When an MFA propane truck overturned on Route O in Johnson County, three of your MoDOT Good Samaritans, Jesse Dunkle, Brian Terrell and Loren Dickmeier, pulled the driver from his burning truck, called 911 and flagged traffic around the crash.
- When MoDOT employee Larry Boesch found a dog that had been hit by a car alongside I-435 near Smithville, he took off the dog's collar, called its veterinarian and gave a family with two young children the opportunity to say "good-bye" to their beloved friend named "Rocket".
- When MoDOT Waterways Program Manager Sherrie Martin found out that the executive director of the New Madrid Port Authority had to take time off because of serious health issues, she traveled to southeast Missouri and virtually assumed her customer's job as executive director of the Port Authority ensuring that vital projects were completed.
- And when the President of the United States called upon the men and women of the Missouri National Guard to aid in bringing freedom to Iraq, MoDOT employees answered the call. Matt Bacon used his MoDOT training to help rebuild roads and infrastructure in the war torn country. Meanwhile, Bruce Pettus utilized his experience with St. Louis Motorist Assist and incident management to invent a rear armor guard for Humvees that is now standard on all such vehicles sent to Iraq.

Matt, Bruce and all the people I mentioned who cared enough to help are here today. I ask them to stand and receive the recognition they deserve.

MoDOT wants to "stop and help" even more along the path. Because of this, it is vital we seek new ways to save more lives. Each year we lose 1,200 mothers, fathers, sons and daughters on Missouri's roads. Something must be done.

One thousand two hundred people killed on our highways is the equivalent of the entire population of communities like Mound City or Lincoln, or New Franklin, or Pasadena Hills or Puxico. Additionally, 69,000 people are injured in traffic crashes every year. That is roughly equivalent to the populations of Cass, or Cape Girardeau or Cole Counties. Something must be done.

Far too many of those who die on our highways are our young people. In 2004, 132 drivers under the age of 21 were killed on Missouri's roadways. These youths accounted for nearly 30 percent of all crashes. Their average age was 17.9 years old. Clearly. Urgently. Something must be done.

Mother's Against Drunk Driving, Triple A, SAFE KIDS St. Louis, the Missouri Association of Insurance Agents, the safety Council of the Ozarks and numerous other organizations know exactly what that something is. On their behalf, on behalf of all those killed or injured on our roadways and on behalf of too many children whose parents never come home again -- we plead to you to enact a primary seat belt law this year. We haven't a moment to lose because we have already lost too many Missourians.

We have the opportunity to save at least 90 lives every year on the highways of Missouri. A law that allows law enforcement officers to simply enforce our existing seat belt law could do exactly that. I realize that many believe this is an issue of individual choice. I would suggest that is not the issue at all. State law already says that everyone must wear a seatbelt. The question now is "Will we allow our law enforcement officers to enforce the law?"

It makes sense to enact a primary safety belt law. It is the most cost effective way to save lives that Missouri has available. It won't cost a dime more in taxpayer money. However, the cost of inaction is far too high. Let's start saving those lives this year.

In his Inaugural Address, Governor Matt Blunt said, "...we will be bold. We will be willing to experiment. We will not fear failure. We will bear setbacks with resolve and press forward with determined innovation. We will attack problems with the deliberation that accompanies this great responsibility and with the energy necessary to build a better Missouri."

MoDOT is up to Governor Blunt's challenge. We will be bold. We will be willing to experiment. We will not fear failure. We will be determined. We will attack problems and we will be energetic. We are committed to going from being a good organization to being a great organization.

We cannot, however, make our transportation system great without all of you. Elected officials, private citizens and anyone else who cares about building a better Missouri will have a seat at the transportation table. We will seek your opinions like never before because your MoDOT knows that we don't have all the answers. We also know that many of the best ideas come from the people we serve.

I was once told of an exchange between Nelson Mandela when he was President of South Africa and the international press corps at a news conference in Johannesburg. A young reporter asked Mandela how he could justify having spent 27 years in prison in support of an idea no one thought could become a reality. Mandela smiled and said his mother had told him that there were three kinds of people in the world:

- The first left nothing behind, not even their name, when they departed
- The second left only the bad things they had done
- And the third left the world a little better off.

Nelson Mandela then asked, "How could I let my mother down?"

Well, I don't think any of us want to let our mothers down!

We are committed to achieving goals that many think will never become reality, but together we can leave our part of the world...a little better off.

As famous Missourian Walt Disney said, "It's kinda fun to do the impossible."

Alone, MoDOT cannot make our transportation system great, but, together, we can.

Together, we can save lives on our highways.

Together, we can make our roadways better.

Together, we can encourage economic prosperity.

Together, we can provide greater transportation services in every part of this state.

Together, we can be great.

Thank you. May God bless America, may God bless Missouri and may God bless your travels.

The Joint Session was dissolved by Senator Shields.

Speaker Jetton resumed the Chair.

HOUSE RESOLUTION

HR 309, (2-02-05) - Bearden

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SEVENTEENTH DAY, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

The Hebrew Scriptures say, "The sun shines on the righteous and the unrighteous; God rains on the just and the unjust alike."

Bless the hours of work that these men and women do today with discernment as to rights and wrongs, to justice and injustice in all its forms.

Like the fog this morning dissipating as the sun breaks through, so may all efforts in this great Hall, all the office business behind the scenes, the committee hearings, and even the routine in the lives of our representatives be executed in light and clarity. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Tess Olson, Marcus Flemming, Ellissa Starr and Jacob Bickford.

The Journal of the sixteenth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

WHEREAS, the Governor, in consultation with the Commissioner of Administration, has determined that the best way to accomplish this consolidation is to abolish Division of Design and Construction and transfer its responsibilities and functions to the Division of Facilities Management.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Matt Blunt, Governor of the State of Missouri, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of the State of Missouri, including Article IV, Section 12, Missouri Constitution, Chapter 26, RSMo, and the Omnibus State Reorganization Act of 1974, hereby:

EIGHTEENTH DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

On this Monday, this beginning of the week, Holy God, we praise Thy Name. For the good in our lives and our families, for the gifts Your generosity has deigned us, and for the work we are about to undertake for our state, we thank You.

May this week open for us joy in people and events, and a sense of accomplishment in what we undertake. Rain or shine, fast or feast, plenty or poverty, You are in us, with us, above us and between us. Continue to reign in these humble hearts, wherever these Your representatives find themselves this week. Amen.

REORGANIZATION PLAN NO. 4 2005

TO THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI:

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of the State of Missouri, including the Omnibus State Reorganization Act of 1974 and sections 26.500 through 26.540, RSMo, I hereby transmit Reorganization Plan No. 4 of 2005, by Executive Order 05-10, providing for the transfer of in-home service programs from the Department of Social Services and the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education to the Department of Health and Senior Services.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 05-10

WHEREAS, the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education is authorized pursuant to Article IX of the Missouri Constitution and created pursuant to Chapter 161.020, RSMo; and

WHEREAS, the Department of Social Services is created pursuant to Article IV, Section 37 of the Missouri Constitution and Chapter 660.010, RSMo; and

WHEREAS, the Department of Health and Senior Services is created pursuant to Chapter 192.005, RSMo; and

WHEREAS, the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education currently provides personal attendant care to individuals with severe physical disabilities to enable them to live more independently through the Personal Assistance Services Program; and

WHEREAS, the Department of Social Services currently provides access to health care for low-income elderly and disabled individuals through the Medicaid Program; and

WHEREAS, the Department of Health and Senior Services provides support services to help seniors and adults with disabilities maintain their independence and safety; and

WHEREAS, the transfer of in-home care programs and services to one state department would better serve the state's elderly and disabled clients; and

WHEREAS, consolidation of these services would increase efficiencies and eliminate duplication of efforts; and

WHEREAS, I am committed to integrating executive branch operations to improve the way the state delivers services.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Matt Blunt, Governor of the State of Missouri, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of the State of Missouri, including Article IV, Section 12, Missouri Constitution, Chapter 26, RSMo, and the Omnibus State Reorganization Act of 1974, hereby order the Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education, the Missouri Department of Social Services, and the Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services to cooperate to:

1. Develop mechanisms and processes necessary to effectively transfer in-home services programs that serve the elderly and disabled individuals to the Department of Health and Senior Services;

Communicator God

When I come to You, with deep concerns You never silence me.

And when I risk telling You my most immediate thoughts and fears, You do not patronize me nor push me aside.

But You are God and not man. It is often with other persons that I have to deal in life.

Help me in all my dealings with these to remember that they too have need to communicate underneath their fragile ego and brokenness.

And it is before YOU and not them that I ultimately stand and find my true worth. Amen.

First Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTIETH DAY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Lanie Black.

Father, we praise You for the freedom You have afforded us in this country. We pray that we in this building will be proper guardians of that freedom. We must inspire the people who are citizens of this state as we struggle to resolve the problems of our budget. Compliance will be difficult and we pray for Your wisdom and guidance as we seek to effect the compromises that will be required.

Thank You very much for loving us and watching over us. Give us good days as legislators.

In Your Son's name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: McKenzie Ingram and Ryan Fiedler.

Heavenly Father, Creator of all that is of this generative Earth, we take a moment to attune ourselves to Your presence. For many of us most of the time, You are the backdrop of our day. We seldom notice You except in great joy, in great pain, or in great need.

COMMUNICATION

February 10, 2005

Mr. Steve Davis, Chief Clerk
Missouri House of Representatives
State Capitol
Jefferson City, MO 65101

Dear Chief Davis:

In my previous disclosure letter, I had advised you that my employment was as “of counsel” to the law firm of Polsinelli, Shalton, Welte, Suelthaus P. C. I continue to be in the status “of counsel”. I have no ownership interest in this firm, and the fees earned by other attorneys in the firm do not impact my salary.

There are well over two hundred attorneys in this law firm, many of which may represent parties with an interest in proposed legislation. In the majority of these cases, I will not even be aware of this representation, as clients of my employer exceed ten thousand and change daily. I have become aware that some attorneys in my firm provide some legal representation to utilities that may be impacted by decisions made by the Missouri General Assembly. The representations exist in several states and change rapidly, so the identification of each attorney/client relationship cannot be specific.

To the extent that a particular piece of legislation directly impacts an entity, that I know to be a client of my firm, in a manner different than it impacts other similarly situated entities in that industry, I will abstain from voting on the proposal.

Should you have any questions, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

/s/ Richard G. Byrd

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

TWENTY-SECOND DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, hear a just cause, give heed to our cry; give ear to our prayer, which is not from deceitful lips.

Wonderfully show to us Your loving kindness as we begin our work week. May our speech be humble not arrogant, concise not long-winded and impacting rather than self-serving.

We call upon You, O Lord, who is worthy to be praised. In our distress, we call upon You for help and find that You are a very present help in time of need.

Now may the grace of God rest and abide with each one of you...

In the wonderful name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-FOURTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, Your way is perfect! Your Word is tested and tried; You are a shield to all who take shelter and put their trust in You.

You give us strength to tackle the toughest of problems and power to overcome any obstacles.

May we not seek the praise of the public in this great Assembly, but proceed with confidence in our calling. Help us to quickly move past any disagreements that may interfere with completion of that vocation.

Now may Your grace rest and abide with each of us throughout this day.

In the excellent name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Ashley Rhoads, Zane Bright, Cane Christison, Eric Mitchell, Brandon Mundle, Henry Sweets IV, Ariana Galluzzio, Stacy Gruchalla, Emma Hayden, Caryn Lippincott and Summer Thomas.

The Journal of the twenty-third day was approved as printed.

Prayer by Ralph Robinett, Sergeant-at-Arms.

Heavenly Father, arise and have compassion on us as we return to work today.

Show us Your favor and grant us wisdom and patience to accomplish our tasks in this Session.

Heavenly Father, help us get through this Session. Be with all of us that we may show love and understanding and be considerate in our debate of the issues that come before us.

Lord, be not far off, be our strength and come quickly to help us, rescue us from the mouths of the lions, save us from the harms of the wild oxen.

Create in us a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within us. In the Lord's name, Amen.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

TWENTY-SIXTH DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, Your instruction is perfect, reviving the soul.
Your testimony is trustworthy, making the inexperienced wise.
Your precepts are right, making the heart glad.
Your directions are plain and easy on the eyes.
Your reputation is pure, enduring forever.
Your decrees are reliable and altogether righteous.

Remind us throughout this week that these principles are more desirable than gold and in keeping them there is great reward.

Deliver us from presumptuous thinking and may it not rule over us.

Now may the grace of our Lord rest and abide with each of us....

In the eternal name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twenty-fifth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Representative Quinn in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

Healing God, remind us today of the old saying, "Sticks and stones may break my bones, but names can never hurt me." You know, Lord, that's true - unless WE LET THEM.

Give today to all these men and women gathered here a double portion of Your kind of inner serenity, and that manner of wisdom which knows when to speak and when to embrace the silence.

And let their words be said or not said, not just for personal gain, but for the good of their constituents and of the whole state. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Ashley Rhoads, Claire Zaupe, Courtney Zoeller, Caroline Brockhaus, Michelle Scherrer and Taylor Daniels.

The Journal of the twenty-sixth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

RECESS

On motion of Representative Dempsey, the House recessed until 11:30 a.m. for the purpose of receiving an address from Senator Christopher S. Bond.

The hour of recess having expired, the House was called to order by Speaker Jetton.

Senator Bond addressed the House.

With the elections over, I am delighted to get back to work.

My old colleague Alan Simpson used to say that Presidential election-year politics remind him of lightning hitting the outhouse.

My Congratulations to you all and to the Governor and his new team.

We have a lot of hard work to do and I wouldn't have it any other way.

The President has set a challenging second-term agenda for Washington.

Whether one supports or opposes his agenda, President Bush has proven to be a leader who is not afraid to believe in big ideas, does not shy away from criticism, and has the courage to take on tough issues that most might choose rather to defer.

We need to complete a highway bill which improves the foundation for future efficiency, economic growth, job creation, and safety.

We are currently building the strategy to do just that and my goal is to maximize funds for Missouri priorities and we expect legislative action to be underway this spring.

With Tom Daschle now returned to the private sector, we hope to win passage of a new energy bill to increase opportunities for domestic producers of energy including our farmers while decreasing our reliance on expensive foreign sources of energy.

This month, we had a tremendous victory with final passage of Class Action legal reform to help protect the rights of plaintiffs to win remedies they deserve without imposing the costly jackpot system of civil justice on our economy that has been benefitting primarily tort lawyers.

Again, another ray of hope that the strategy of obstruction in Washington has diminished clout.

The next legal reform priority will be to address medical malpractice which drives up the cost of medicine and makes it harder for patients to find doctors.

We have a budget that is tough medicine and shows the President is willing to make hard decisions that are necessary.

While the Congress will certainly make modifications to the details of the President's budget, I believe that we will have to meet his overall budget targets and that will not be easy.

The solution of some will be not to tighten the belt, but just to buy a bigger belt by raising taxes.

This, we will resist because a $2.5 trillion budget should be enough and we cannot afford to frustrate our economy with higher taxes as we struggle to grow out of the recession and to create more jobs.

The President has boldly stepped up to the plate to suggest that we strengthen Social Security for not just this, but for the next generations.

In response, Senator Schumer from New York said he will filibuster the President's plan - a plan which has not been released.

We can only assume, Senator Schumer plans either to support higher social security taxes or do nothing as an alternative.

Last week, I introduced new election reform legislation to continue the goal of making it easier to vote and harder to cheat which includes new security features to ensure legitimate voters are not cheated by illegal votes.

Soon, I will be introducing legislation to build on the tremendous success of "Parents as Teachers" program we began here in Missouri.

Parents as Teachers is now 21 years old which shows my age.

It began as an experiment in Missouri and has expanded to more than 3,000 sites in all 50 states and six foreign countries.

My new legislation, called the, "Education Begins at Home Act" will authorize the first, dedicated federal funding stream to support Parents as Teachers at the state and local levels.

When authorized and funded, there will be ten times more families receiving PAT services.

To help States improve air quality and cope with federal regulations, I am hopeful that the Senate can pass the President's "Clear Skies" Initiative.

Clear Skies will force massive pollution cuts from electric power plants:

- 70 percent cut of acid rain causing sulfur dioxide
- 70 percent cut of smog causing nitrogen oxides
- 70 percent cut of mercury

The 70 percent mercury cut represents the first time we have ever required mercury pollution cuts from power plants.

Clear Skies pollution cuts will clean up local air pollution in areas that violate federal standards like St. Louis and Kansas City - so much so that dreaded local controls like road building and manufacturing restrictions will not be needed.

Finally, the President remains committed to freedom and security and the leading role of America as the world's only super power.

I have visited those who have suffered for the freedom and safety of others during my visits to Walter Reed and Bethesda Naval and my son - a new Marine - is leaving this week for Iraq so I have a personal understanding that the history of man's pursuit of freedom is always costly.

It is surpassed only by the human cost of tyranny, oppression, and unbridled aggression.

We must remain resolute and ensure that those who are on the battle lines of this new threat to freedom know they have the tools, the resources, and the moral support from those back home.

We know America's finest on the front line won't crack under fire. We have to make sure the terrorists know that the American public will not crack behind the wall of safety provided by those on the front lines.

We have been tested a great many times since our founders declared that persons have a right to liberty endowed by our Creator.

The Iraqi people who bravely voted for liberty and against terror under threat of death is a modern reminder of the enduring wisdom of our founders.

In our country, it took 15 years after declaration and a war to approve a Constitution and elect a President and another 75 years and our bloodiest war - a civil war - to ensure that all people are above slavery.

It took another 55 years to permit women to vote and another 45 years to ensure that black American adults could vote.

So the road ahead in the Middle East will be difficult to transition to liberty from a deprived and despotic region known more for producing terror than opportunity.

But who among us, four years ago, could have imagined that the Palestinians would have a legitimate leader who is honestly seeking peace with Israel while a pro-western ally against terror would be inaugurated in Afghanistan and an Iraq - without Saddam and his despicable sons - would hold a legitimate election.

The concept of freedom taking hold in a region some thought incapable of freedom is proving contagious and making nervous opponents of freedom in Iran, Syria and Saudi Arabia.

From the Revolutionary War to the Civil War to the World Wars through the Cold War, we have not failed freedom and we can not fail it here.

There is too much at stake. There are too many threats and too many opportunities for us not to prevail.

Once again, we have a great deal of important work to do - an opportunity that is not daunting, but inspiring.

Let's get to it.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-EIGHTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, some may take great pride in their work, some in their possessions and others in their accomplishments, but we take pride in the name of the LORD our God. Many collapse and fall in their own strength, but we rise and stand firm in Your strength. O LORD, give us success in our endeavors. May You answer us each time we call.

Whatever our hands find to do, may we do it with all our strength, trusting always in You. There is no work, planning, knowledge, or wisdom accomplished adequately apart from You.

May we consider wisely the many bills set before us this day, may the debates be lively but fruitful, and at the end of the day, may we rest with confidence knowing that we have done our best.

Now may the grace of our Lord rest and abide with each of us throughout this day.

In the exalted name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 468, Page 20, Section 30.860, Line 71, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"Section 1. 1. There is hereby created in the state treasury the "State Treasurer's General Operations Fund" which shall receive deposits, make disbursements and be administered in compliance with the provisions of this section.

2. Subject to appropriation, moneys in the state treasurer's general operations fund shall be used solely to pay for personal service, equipment and other expenses of the state treasurer related to the state treasurer's constitutional and statutory responsibilities, exclusive of any personal service, equipment and other expenses attributable to positions wholly dedicated to the functions described in chapter 447, RSMo. The commissioner of administration shall review and approve all requests of the state treasurer of disbursements from the state treasurer's general operations fund for compliance with the provisions of this section. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prevent the general assembly from making appropriations to the state treasurer from other permissible sources.

3. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, moneys shall be deposited in the state treasurer's general operations fund and administered in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) On a daily basis, the state treasurer shall apportion any interest or other increment derived from the investment of funds in an amount proportionate to the average daily balance of funds in the state treasury. The state treasurer shall use a method in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in apportioning and distributing that interest or increment. Prior to distributing that interest or increment, the state treasurer shall deduct the costs incurred by the state treasurer in administering this chapter in proportion to the average daily balance of the amounts deposited to each fund in the state treasury. The state treasurer shall then deposit the identified portion of the daily interest receipts in the "State Treasurer's General Operations Fund". All other remaining interest received on the investment of state funds shall be allocated and deposited to funds within the state treasury as required by law.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

TWENTY-NINTH DAY, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Donald W. Lammers.

Almighty God, on this foggy morning, we pray for the gift of wisdom that will allow us to see clearly and with a long range of visibility, that we might accomplish the work of this day.

We join the prayer of Solomon, "Give your servant a heart to understand how to discern between good and evil," (1 Kings 3:9). That we might use this discernment throughout the day, we beseech You, O Lord.

Purify our minds that we may think clearly.

Open our minds that we may hear Your wisdom, in the voices of others.

Touch our lips that we may speak Your truth.

Hold our hearts that we may always follow You.

Bless us this day, Holy Spirit of God, with Your gift of wisdom.

We pray to You who are our God, forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twenty-eighth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

THIRTIETH DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Dedication of the Chamber's new Preamble display and prayer was given by Representative Rob Schaaf.

In a moment, please join me in dedicating our Chamber's new Preamble display with a prayer.

Before we pray, however, all those who made the Preamble Project possible deserve thanks, beginning with the members who supported House Resolution No. 6 last year, and especially Representative J.C. Kuessner and former Representative Ronnie Miller, co-sponsors. Special thanks go to former Speaker Catherine Hanaway, Speaker Rod Jetton and now Senator Jason Crowell, each of whom gave special assistance. The original concept of a Missouri-shaped display was Ray Griggs', my legislative aide. The artwork and design were completed by the Art Department of Missouri Western State College, especially Teresa Harris and Dr. Allison Sauls. Van Vickie Monuments of Saint Joseph arranged for the actual construction and Tom Sater, Capitol Restorations Consultant, coordinated the installation. In addition to all of these, thanks go to the many citizens across Missouri who contributed financially.

The display's black granite can be found only in Zimbabwe and was chosen for its rich appearance and harmony with the Chamber's other architectural elements. It weighs 158 pounds, is approximately 36 inches wide by 34 inches tall, and its letters are lined with gold leaf, except for the great seal which is photo etched.

Missouri voters adopted a new Constitution on February 27th, 1945, including the Preamble which is very similar to the Preamble of the Constitution of 1875. For those listening and unable to see the Preamble display, let me remind you of its words:

"We, the people of Missouri, with profound reverence for the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, and grateful for His goodness, do establish this constitution for the better government of the state."

And now, let us pray.

Our Father,
Who art in heaven,
Hallowed be Thy name.

Sixty years ago yesterday, the People of Missouri voted to adopt a new Constitution, the Preamble of which uses Your name, Supreme Ruler of the Universe.

Now, as then, our mood is one of profound reverence for You, as we rededicate our Constitution by displaying its Preamble with Your name in our Chamber. Help us preserve this reverent spirit as we make decisions that affect the lives of our fellow Missourians.

Now, as then, we are grateful for Your goodness. We give thanks for our many blessings, and the wisdom You gave to those who came before us. By adopting our Constitution, they protected the freedoms You gave us.

In rededicating our Constitution, we rejoice in our freedom to display Your name. Yet we are mindful that there are some who would take away that freedom. Give us the strength to resist them, and the resolve to never let Your name be removed from our Constitution, from our Chamber, from our hearts.

Finally, we ask for Your guidance as we go about our daily work of governing. Let our Preamble remind us that there is not one among men who is called supreme. That name belongs only to You, the Supreme Ruler of the Universe.

And always as we pray, it is in Your name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Eleanor Loaghaire Kloeckener.

The Journal of the twenty-ninth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

THIRTY-FIRST DAY, TUESDAY, MARCH 1, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Donald W. Lammers.

We stand before You, Holy Spirit of God,
Conscious of our limitations,
Our weaknesses, even our sinfulness,
But aware that we gather in Your sight.

We gather for the sake of the people we have been chosen to represent.

Enable us to uphold the rights of all,
That there might be justice for all.
Give us light to see what is just,
To understand what is right.

Do not allow us to be misled by ignorance
Or corrupted by fear of favor.

As we work through the agenda of this day,
Give us the wisdom to know Your will,
And the courage to carry it out.

Come to us, remain with us,
And enlighten our hearts.
For You are our God,
Forever and ever. Amen.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-SECOND DAY, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 2, 2005

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, in Your strength we are glad and in Your victory we rejoice. You have given us our heart's desire and You have not withheld answers to our request. In You we trust and we are not disappointed.

May our message, method and our motive be clear, concise and purposeful as we continue our service to one another, this state and its constituents.

May our vision remain clear, our bodies strong and our integrity intact as we journey through the mountain of decisions before us.

Help us, O Lord, to maintain a wholesome dread of displeasing You and a clearly demonstrated honor for one another.

Now may the grace of our Lord rest and abide with each of us throughout this day.

In the victorious name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

SIGNING OF SENATE BILL

Representative Harris (23) and Representative Baker (25) offered an objection to SS SCS SB 98.

CONSTITUTIONAL OBJECTION

Comes now, the undersigned duly elected members of the Missouri House of Representatives to present the following objection, pursuant to Article III, Section 30, of the Missouri Constitution, to Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 98. This legislation should not be signed because it is constitutionally infirm, and this objection shall be so noted in the Journal and annexed to the bill for the governor's consideration.

We believe that Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 98 is constitutionally defective in that the bill:

- (1) Contains more than one subject, in violation of Article III, Section 23 of the Missouri Constitution; and
- (2) Conflicts with Article IX, Sections 9(a) and 9(b) of the Missouri Constitution, which state that the state of Missouri shall have only one "state university".

1. Single Subject

Article III, Section 23 of the Missouri Constitution states:

No bill shall contain more than one subject which shall be clearly expressed in its title, except bills enacted under the third exception in section 37 of this article and general appropriation bills, which may embrace the various subjects and accounts for which moneys are appropriated.

Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 98, in Section 1 of the bill, includes a wide variety of different subjects, including but not limited to, the re-naming of different institutions with different educational missions, histories, and purposes.

In its analysis of Article III, Section 23 of the Missouri Constitution, the Missouri Supreme Court has held:

The words "one subject" must be broadly read, but not so broadly that the phrase becomes meaningless. To that end, this Court's test for determining whether a bill violates the single subject requirement of Article III, Section 23, has remained virtually the same since 1869. So long as "the matter is germane, connected and congruous," the law does not violate the single subject rule. State v. Mathews, 44 Mo. 523, 527 (1869). Cf. Westin Crown Plaza Hotel, 664 S.W.2d at 6. (The test to determine if "a bill contains more than one subject is whether all provisions of the bill fairly relate to the same subject, have a natural connection therewith or are incidents or means to accomplish its purpose.") From these consistent precedents we conclude that a "subject" within the meaning of Article III, Section 23, includes all matters that fall within or reasonably relate to the general core purpose of the proposed legislation. (Emphasis added.)

The core purpose of the proposed legislation is to change the name of Southwest Missouri State University to Missouri State University. However, portions of the bill relate to completely different institutions with different purposes and different missions. Therefore, the bill contains more than one subject, and is in violation of Article III, Section 23 of the Missouri Constitution.

2. "The" State University

Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 98 amends sections 174.020, 174.450 and 176.010 changing Southwest Missouri State University into "Missouri State University." However, the Missouri Constitution, in Article IX, Section 9(a), states:

The government of the state university shall be vested in a board of curators consisting of nine members appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate. (Emphasis added.)

Further, the Missouri Constitution, in Article IX, Section 9(b), states:

The general assembly shall adequately maintain the state university and such other educational institutions as it may deem necessary. (Emphasis added.)

The common and ordinary usage and meaning of the word "the" before a noun indicates the noun is a single, specific subject. As defined in Webster's Dictionary, the word "the" is an article "used as a determiner before nouns and noun phrases designating particular persons or things." The use of the word "the" in Sections 9(a) and 9(b) of Article IX demonstrates the clear intent of the General Assembly to designate one educational institution as "the state university." A statute naming an additional educational institution as a "state university" would be in direct conflict with Article IX, Sections 9(a) and 9(b), and, thus, would be null and void.

For the above stated reason and other reasons not stated here, we conclude that the Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 98 as Truly Agreed and Finally Passed by the 93rd General Assembly is unconstitutional and should not be signed.

Respectfully submitted:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-THIRD DAY, THURSDAY, MARCH 3, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Father James M. Smith, Associate Pastor, St. Peter Church.

Blessed are You, Lord, God of all creation.
You have shown great favor to Your servants,
the fathers of our nation and our state,
because they behaved faithfully toward You,
with justice and upright hearts;
and You have continued this great favor toward them, even today, gathering us together in this house of government.
O Lord, our God, You have made us Your servants,
who succeed those who established this great body.
But we are so limited in judgment,
not knowing fully Your will for us.
We serve You in the midst of the people to whom
You have given such great freedom and responsibility, a people diverse in culture and thought.
Give to Your servants, therefore, wisdom and an understanding heart to lead Your people and to distinguish right from wrong.
For who is able to lead Your people apart from You?
We offer this prayer to You,
Who lives and reigns supreme over the nations, supreme among the peoples,
Forever and ever.

(Adapted from Solomon's Prayer for Wisdom)
I Kings 3:6-9

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Harrison Charles Jones, Joe Salmeri, Samantha Everett, Austin Karvis and Kenny Dodson.

The Journal of the thirty-second day was approved as corrected.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 15

WHEREAS, the United States has no integrated nationwide automated system for monitoring the safety history or violation records of Mexican companies and drivers, or a system to verify driver's licenses or drug testing for drivers, and it is therefore difficult for Missouri law enforcement personnel to obtain essential safety data; and

WHEREAS, if trucks from Mexico are allowed access to the State of Missouri, verification of foreign insurance policies and access to foreign judicial systems will be very difficult when accidents occur, possibly resulting in the delay of settlements and payments to the injured citizens of the State of Missouri; and

WHEREAS, Mexico does not have labeling of hazardous or toxic cargo which poses a clear and present danger to the security of the State of Missouri if trucks transporting such cargo enter territory of the state without prior inspection at the border of the United States; and

WHEREAS, large quantities of illegal drugs are smuggled into Missouri from foreign nations, including Mexico:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-third General Assembly, First Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby urge the Governor of the State of Missouri, the President of the United States, and the members of the United States Congress to oppose any effort to allow trucks to enter the State of Missouri without first being inspected at the border of the United States and Mexico; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri General Assembly memorializes the Missouri Congressional Delegation to restrict trucks from Mexico and other foreign nations from entering the United States until there is full compliance by the owners and drivers of those trucks with all highway safety, environmental, and drug enforcement laws; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for Governor Matt Blunt, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and each member of the Missouri Congressional Delegation.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-FOURTH DAY, MONDAY, MARCH 7, 2005

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, we trust in You and through Your mercy we are not shaken. Be exalted, O Lord, in Your strength for we speak of Your praise and power.

You, O Lord, are not distant and offer help and assistance whenever we pray.

Although many may criticize and sneer at the decisions we make in this Chamber, we shamelessly seek to fulfill our due service to You, this state, and our constituents.

Help us to celebrate the splendor of changing seasons, the necessity of opposing views, and the liberty to speak our passions.

Grant us peace as we pray in the undying name of Your Son. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the thirty-third day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-FIFTH DAY, TUESDAY, MARCH 8, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Donald W. Lammers.

Almighty God, Creator and Lord of all that is, You are the Creator of life; You are the Lord of life. We thank You for our own life, for the lives of our children and grandchildren, for the life of every member of our family. There is no price tag we could place on their lives. The life of each person receives its value from You. You alone are the Lord of life.

The topics we face in the agenda of each day affect the lives of the people we represent; some topics affect the very existence of the life of some. Holy God, this day bless us with the gift of right judgment and courage, that our deliberation, our communication, and our actions may remain anchored in the truth that You alone are Lord of life.

We pray to You, our God, forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Brianna Harmon, Joel Cox, Erin Scheiderer, Kelsey Fessler, Ryan Naylor, Gregory Batteast, Croix Sterling and Mariah Sterling.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-SIXTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 9, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, Your Word declares, "the Earth is the Lord's and all it contains. You have founded it upon the seas and established it upon the rivers." Who can stand before Your greatness and defy Your goodness?

May our actions be without fault, our attitude and motives pure, our pursuits without deception and our words without hypocrisy.

Lead us in truth, instruct us in Your ways and pardon our missteps.

May we follow after humility, justice and truth as we continue the path to a successful and profitable session.

Now may the grace of our Lord rest and abide with each of us throughout this day.

In the exulted name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-SEVENTH DAY, THURSDAY, MARCH 10, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Donald W. Lammers.

Almighty God, You command the March winds.

“The wind blows where it wills, and you can hear the sound it makes, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes...” (John 3:8). Holy Spirit of God, whom we begin to understand through the wind You create and control, blow among us as an assembly, move within each of us.

Spirit of silence, in the still moments of this day open us to God’s presence.

Spirit of peace, help us to be attentive to God’s word in the world.

Spirit of love, compel us to be open to the needs of others.

Spirit of power, bestow the gift of Your strength upon us.

Spirit of God, one with God, Almighty God, who lives and reigns forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Nicole Campbell, Allison Campbell, Ashley Cox, Dusty Cox, Megan Chappell, Josh Chappell, Jacob Cluck, Jacob Moss, Emily Akers, Zackery Akers, Adam Ballew, Alissa Ballew, Buffy Parish, Todd Crites, Tricia Crites, Billy Crites, Caleb Hovis, Tanner Hovis, Dalton Hovis, Jessie Adams, Ashley Adams and Alison Keiper.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-EIGHTH DAY, MONDAY, MARCH 14, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, You are our light and our salvation – whom should we fear?

You are the stronghold of our life – of whom should we be afraid?

We do not fear the week ahead and the immense decisions to be made. We do not fear the specter of unfulfilled promises. We do not fear the prospect of making tough calls on tough issues. We do not fear the wide-ranging voices of dissent. But we do indeed have a wholesome dread of displeasing You.

One thing we do ask of You Lord, grant us a hearing heart that we might discern between wisdom and foolishness. Guide us in the way of truth and keep us from harm.

Now may the grace of our Lord rest and abide with us all,

In the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Charlotte Franks.

The Journal of the thirty-seventh day was approved as printed.

“249.1150. 1. There is hereby created within any county of the third classification without a township form of government and with more than thirty-four thousand but less than thirty-four thousand one hundred inhabitants, any county of the second classification without a township form of government and with more than fifty-four thousand two hundred but less than fifty-four thousand three hundred inhabitants, [any county of the third classification without a township form of government and with more than thirteen thousand seventy-five but less than thirteen thousand one hundred seventy-five inhabitants,] any county of the first classification with more than two hundred forty thousand three hundred but less than two hundred forty thousand four hundred inhabitants, [any county of the third classification without a township form of government and with more than nine thousand four hundred fifty but less than nine thousand five hundred fifty inhabitants,] any county of the third classification without a township form of government and with more than twenty-eight thousand six hundred but less than twenty-eight thousand seven hundred inhabitants, any county of the first classification with more than thirty-nine thousand seven hundred but less than thirty-nine thousand eight hundred inhabitants, and any county of the third classification without a township form of government and with more than thirty-one thousand but less than thirty-one thousand one hundred inhabitants, [and any county of the third classification without a township form of government and with more than seventeen thousand nine hundred but less than eighteen thousand inhabitants,] the Upper White River Basin Watershed Improvement District. The watershed improvement district is authorized to own, install, operate, and maintain decentralized or individual on-site wastewater treatment plants. The watershed improvement district created under this section shall be a body corporate and a political subdivision of the state of Missouri, shall be capable of suing and being sued in contract in its corporate name, and shall be capable of holding such real and personal property necessary for corporate purposes. The district shall implement procedures to regulate the area within the district and to educate property owners within the district about the requirements imposed by the district.

2. The watershed improvement district created under this section shall have the power to borrow money and incur indebtedness and evidence the same by certificates, notes, or debentures, to issue bonds and use any one or more lawful funding methods the district may obtain for its purposes at such rates of interest as the district may determine. Any bonds, notes, and other obligations issued or delivered by the district may be secured by mortgage, pledge, or deed of trust of any or all of the property within the district. Every issue of such bonds, notes, or other obligations shall be payable out of property and revenues of the district and may be further secured by other property within the district, which may be pledged, assigned, mortgaged, or a security interest granted for such payment, without preference or priority of the first bonds issued, subject to any agreement with the holders of any other bonds pledging any specified property or revenues. Such bonds, notes, or other obligations shall be authorized by resolution of the district board, and shall bear such date or dates, and shall mature at such time or times, but not in excess of thirty years, as the resolution shall specify. Such bonds, notes, or other obligations shall be in such denomination, bear interest at such rate or rates, be in such form, either coupon or registered, be issued as current interest bonds, compound interest bonds, variable rate bonds, convertible bonds, or zero coupon bonds, be issued in such manner, be payable in such place or places, and be subject to redemption as such resolution may provide, notwithstanding section 108.170, RSMo. The bonds, notes, or other obligations may be sold at either public or private sale, at such interest rates, and at such price or prices as the district shall determine.

3. The county commission of any county located within the watershed improvement district may authorize individual properties to be served by the district by adoption of a resolution or upon the filing of a petition signed by at least twenty percent of the property owners of the proposed area. The resolution or petition shall describe generally the size and location of the proposed area.

4. In the event that any property within the watershed improvement district proposed under this section lies within or is serviced by any existing sewer district formed under this chapter, chapter 204, or chapter 250, RSMo, the property shall not become part of the watershed improvement district formed under this section unless the existing sewer district agrees to refrain from providing service or to discontinue service to the property. No property shall become part of the watershed district until the owner of that property has paid in full all outstanding costs owed to an existing sewer district formed under this chapter, chapter 204, or chapter 250, RSMo.

5. Upon the creation of the watershed improvement district as authorized by this section, a board of trustees for the district consisting of nine members shall be appointed. The governing body of each county shall appoint one member to serve on the board. No trustee shall reside in the same county as another trustee. Of the initial trustees appointed, five shall serve terms of one year, and four shall serve terms of two years, as determined by lot. After the initial appointments of the trustees, the successor trustees shall reside in the same county as the prior trustee and be elected by the resident property owners of their county within the district. Each trustee may be elected to no more than five consecutive two-year terms. Vacancies shall be filled by the board. Each trustee shall serve until a successor is elected and sworn. The trustees shall not receive compensation for their services, but may be reimbursed for their actual and necessary expenses. The board shall elect a chair and other officers necessary for its membership. The board shall enter into contracts with any person or entity for the maintenance, administrative, or support work required to administer the district. The board may charge reasonable fees and submit proposals to levy and impose property taxes to fund the operation of the district to the qualified voters in the district, but such proposals shall not become effective unless a majority of the qualified voters in the district voting on the proposals approve the proposed levy and rate of tax. The board may adopt resolutions necessary to the operation of the district.

6. No service shall be initiated to any property lying within the watershed improvement district created under this section unless the property owner elects to have the service provided by the district.

7. Any on-site wastewater treatment system installed on any property that participates in the watershed improvement district formed under this section shall meet all applicable standards for such on-site wastewater treatment systems under sections 701.025 to 701.059, RSMo, and as required by rules or regulations promulgated by the board of trustees and the appropriate state agencies.

8. Property owners participating in the watershed improvement district formed under this section shall be required as a condition of continued participation to have a maintenance plan approved by the watershed improvement district for the on-site wastewater treatment systems on their properties. Such property owners shall also execute a utilities easement to allow the district access to the system for maintenance purposes and inspections. The property owner shall provide satisfactory proof that periodic maintenance is performed on the sewage system. At a minimum the system shall be installed and maintained according to the manufacturer's recommendations. The level of satisfactory proof required and the frequency of periodic proof shall be determined by the board of trustees.

9. A district established under this section may, at a general or primary election, submit to the qualified voters within the district boundaries a real property tax that shall not exceed five cents per one hundred dollars assessed valuation to fund the operation of the district. The ballot of submission shall be in substantially the following form:

Shall the (name of district) impose a real property tax within the district at a rate of not more than (insert amount) dollars per hundred dollars of assessed valuation to fund the operation of the district?

☐ YES

☐ NO

If you are in favor of the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "YES". If you are opposed to the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "NO".

If a majority of the votes cast in each county that is part of the district favor the proposal, then the real property tax shall become effective in the district on the first day of the year following the year of the election. However, if a real property tax proposal is not approved, the governing body of the county shall not resubmit a proposal to the voters under this section sooner than twelve months from the date of the last proposal submitted under this section.

6. The real property tax authorized by this section is in addition to all other real property taxes allowed by law.

7. The governing body of any city or county may impose, by order or ordinance, a sales tax on all retail sales made in the city or county which are subject to sales tax under chapter 144, RSMo. The tax authorized in this section shall not be more than one-half of one percent. The order or ordinance imposing the tax shall not become effective unless the governing body of the city or county submits to the voters of the city or county at any citywide, county or state general, primary or special election a proposal to authorize the governing body to impose a tax under this section. The tax authorized in this section shall be in addition to all other sales taxes imposed by law, and shall be stated separately from all other charges and taxes. The tax authorized in this section shall not be imposed by any city or county that has imposed a tax under section 67.1300 or 67.1303 unless the tax imposed under those sections has expired or been repealed.

Shall (insert the name of the city or county) impose a sales tax at a rate of (insert rate of percent) percent for economic development purposes?

☐ YES

☐ NO

If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of the question, then the tax shall become effective on the first day of the second calendar quarter following the calendar quarter in which the election was held. If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are opposed to the question, then the tax shall not become effective unless and until the question is resubmitted under this section to the qualified voters and such question is approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting on the question, provided that no proposal shall be resubmitted to the voters sooner than twelve months from the date of the submission of the last proposal.

4. All sales taxes collected by the director of revenue under this section on behalf of any county or municipality, less one percent for cost of collection which shall be deposited in the state's general revenue fund after payment of premiums for surety bonds as provided in section 32.087, RSMo, shall be deposited in a special trust fund, which is hereby created, to be known as the "Local Option Economic Development Sales Tax Trust Fund".

5. The moneys in the local option economic development sales tax trust fund shall not be deemed to be state funds and shall not be commingled with any funds of the state. 7. The director of revenue may authorize the state treasurer to make refunds from the amounts in the trust fund and credited to any city or county for erroneous payments and overpayments made, and may redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such cities and counties.

8. If any county or municipality abolishes the tax, the city or county shall notify the director of revenue of the action at least ninety days prior to the effective date of the repeal and the director of revenue may order retention in the trust fund, for a period of one year, of two percent of the amount collected after receipt of such notice to cover possible refunds or overpayment of the tax and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such accounts. After one year has elapsed after the effective date of abolition of the tax in such city or county, the director of revenue shall remit the balance in the account to the city or county and close the account of that city or county. The director of revenue shall notify each city or county of each instance of any amount refunded or any check redeemed from receipts due the city or county.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTIETH DAY, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 16, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

We give You LORD the glory due Your name; we worship You LORD in the splendor of Your holiness. Your voice moves the waters. The voice of Your glory thunders throughout the whole earth. Your voice is powerful and majestic.

May we position ourselves today to hear Your voice that we might be blessed with peace, strength and insight.

We are determined, with Your help, to drive offense and anger far from us; for there is no profit in that. In our deliberations today, may we seek not the applause of man, but the applause of Heaven.

Grant us rest and enjoyment of family during the upcoming Spring break and may we return refreshed and ready to tackle the concluding issues of this session.

Grace be with us all.

In the authority of Your Son's name, we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Meredith Brunkow, Jordan Ousley, Emily Ousley, Mark Baehr and Matt Hunt.

The Journal of the thirty-ninth day was approved as corrected.

"538.230. 1. In any action against a health care provider for damages for personal injury or death on account of the rendering of or failure to render health care services where fault is apportioned among the parties and persons released pursuant to subsection 3 of this section, the court, unless otherwise agreed by all the parties, shall instruct the jury to apportion fault among such persons and parties, or the court, if there is no jury, shall make findings, indicating the percentage of total fault of all the parties to each claim that is allocated to each party and person who has been released from liability under subsection 3 of this section.

2. The court shall determine the award of damages to each plaintiff in accordance with the findings, subject to any reduction under subsection 3 of this section and enter judgment against each party liable on the basis of the rules of joint and several liability[. However, notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection, any defendant against whom an award of damages is made shall be jointly liable only with those defendants whose apportioned percentage of fault is equal to or less than such defendant] as established in section 537.067, RSMo.

3. Any release, covenant not to sue, or similar agreement entered into by a claimant and a person or entity against which a claim is asserted arising out of the alleged transaction which is the basis for plaintiff's cause of action, whether actually made a party to the action or not, discharges that person or entity from all liability for contribution or indemnity but it does not discharge other persons or entities liable upon such claim unless it so provides. However, the claim of the releasing person against other persons or entities is reduced by the amount of the released persons' or entities' equitable share of the total obligation imposed by the court pursuant to a full apportionment of fault under this section as though there had been no release."; and

FORTY-FIRST DAY, THURSDAY, MARCH 17, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Father James M. Smith.

I arise today
Through God's strength to pilot me:
God's might to uphold me,
God's wisdom to guide me,
God's eye to look before me,
God's ear to hear me,
God's word to speak for me,
God's hand to guard me,
God's way to lie before me,
God's shield to protect me,
God's host to save me
From snares of devils,
From temptations of vices,
From everyone who shall wish me ill,
Afar and anear,
Alone and in multitude.

Christ with me, Christ before me, Christ behind me,
Christ in me, Christ beneath me, Christ above me,
Christ on my right, Christ on my left,
Christ when I lie down, Christ when I sit down, Christ when I arise,
Christ in the heart of every man who thinks of me,
Christ in the mouth of everyone who speaks of me,
Christ in every eye that sees me,
Christ in every ear that hears me.

From the Breastplate of St. Patrick

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Chris Driesel and Shelby Hoppe.

The Journal of the fortieth day was approved as printed.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-THIRD DAY, TUESDAY, MARCH 29, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Donald W. Lammers.

Almighty God, God of life and God of time, we thank You for the gift of time away on spring break. We thank You for time of rest and leisure. We thank You for time of catching up.

God of life, we thank You for springtime and for its new life budding everywhere. May this evidence in nature of Your creative power, bring us the promise of Your power working in us, now that we are back in session. We pray and You answer.

“If men (and women) desire wisdom, she will give them water of knowledge to drink. They will never waver from the truth, they will stand firm forever.” (Sirach 15:3-4)

With the help of Your grace of wisdom and of Your grace in its many other forms, may our work in this body this Spring be life-giving for the people of our state.

We pray to You, O Lord our God, forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Dylan McGhee, Jonathon Sullivan, Jacob Atkinson, and Courtney Davis.

The Journal of the forty-first day was approved as corrected.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-FOURTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 30, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, to You we call, for You are our Rock and do not turn a deaf ear to us. You are not silent when we lift our voice to You.

As we return to the issues at hand, may our hearts be courageous, our bodies strong and our minds perceptive. May You preserve us, as we remain faithful to our calling.

You speak and it is done, You command and we stand in awe. Open our ears that we may hear clearly and respond appropriately.

Let Your mercy, O Lord, be upon us, according as we have hoped in You.

Now unto You be glory, majesty, dominion and authority, before all time, now and forever.

In the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Joseph Murray, Stuart Murray, Michaela Sinks, Payton Garrison, Drew Volmer, Kelsey Lee Smith, Tara Marie Mocker, Amanda Marie Mocker, Celeste Graves, Anna Graves and Hunter Wade.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-FIFTH DAY, THURSDAY, MARCH 31, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Donald W. Lammers.

Let us pray, listening to this word of God from Psalm 9:8:

But the Lord sits enthroned forever;
He has set up His throne for judgment.
He judges the world with justice;
He governs the peoples with equity.

Lord our God, we pray for the ability to judge with justice, that we might participate in governing the peoples with equity.

When our agenda deals with jobs, help us establish policy that makes jobs with living wages available to all; when about health care, help us establish policy that assists those who truly need help; when about poverty, help us establish policy that lifts low-income families out of poverty. Whatever the topics on the agenda for this day's work, O Lord, give us the understanding and judgment to "govern the peoples with equity."

This we ask of You who are our God forever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Christiana Holcomb, Rachel Holcomb, Joshua Holcomb, Maisie Moore, Davis Spenser, Amber Stinnett, Jessica Bartz, Candice Brown, Eric Osner, Tisha Nibarger, Caleb Vadnais, Laura Roberts, R. B. Quinn, Monica Acosta, Amanda Griffith, Heather Bixenman, Jeff Naylor, Craig Meissen, Michael Manson, Amanda Bartholomew, Ceanne Kressig, Tyler Hall, Betty DeWitt, Paul Murphy and Eric Ellward.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-SEVENTH DAY, MONDAY, APRIL 4, 2005

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, we will always give thanks to You; We will never stop praising You. You have shown us the path of life, the joy of believing, and the security of Your presence. We have tasted the goodness of Your kindness and take a moment now to just to say “thank You.”

May we be mindful of the awesome responsibility of trust given us by You and the people of this state. We are intensely aware that, as servants, many look to us to help improve their quality of life. May we not deal falsely with that trust.

We thank You for hearing us as we pray and granting wisdom where needed.

We would be remiss if we did not heed Your command to mourn with those who mourn and rejoice with those who rejoice. We mourn the death of Pope John Paul II and celebrate his eternal legacy.

Grace and peace be with us all.

In the authority of Your Son’s name, we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Ashley Bright, Sarah Flowers and Jacob Flowers.

The Journal of the forty-fifth day was approved as corrected.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-EIGHTH DAY, TUESDAY, APRIL 5, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Donald W. Lammers.

Let us pray, on this day of voting.

Lord our God, we thank You for creating humankind in Your image and likeness. You gave us the ability to “choose the good” (Isaiah 7:15), as one of our highest forms of acting the way You act.

We pray for the people, the citizens of our state. Inspire them to go to the polls and carefully to “choose the good” as they vote today. In this simple act, help them experience their personal dignity, their individual power, and the fulfillment of their duty before all the people and even before You, their God.

When the voting is over, give us the humility to discern the meaning of the results. In all our work in this House of Representatives, guide and help us to carefully “choose the good”. Whenever we vote here, may we experience our own dignity of being created in Your image and likeness. Inspire us to cast our votes in the way we believe to be most in harmony with Your will.

We pray to You, who are our God forever and ever. Amen!

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Ryan Stellhorn, Christian Winkelmann, Mitchell Brungard, Jimmy Colestock, Patrick Rice, Joseph Benoist, Tawner Stefan, Dainec Stefan, Allison Cecil, Logan Darnell, Jackie Hall, Woody Hall, Karissa Forrest, Brooke Simms, Brian VanMeter, Daylon Duncan, Carrie Schmidt and Avery J. Further amend said bill, Page 1, Section A, Line 2, by inserting after said line the following:

“217.690. 1. When in its opinion there is reasonable probability that an offender of a correctional center can be released without detriment to the community or to himself, the board may in its discretion release or parole such person except as otherwise prohibited by law. All paroles shall issue upon order of the board, duly adopted.

2. Before ordering the parole of any offender, the board shall have the offender appear before a hearing panel and shall conduct a personal interview with him, unless waived by the offender. A parole shall be ordered only for the best interest of society, not as an award of clemency; it shall not be considered a reduction of sentence or a pardon. An offender shall be placed on parole only when the board believes that he is able and willing to fulfill the obligations of a law-abiding citizen. Every offender while on parole shall remain in the legal custody of the department but shall be subject to the orders of the board.

3. The board has discretionary authority to require the payment of a fee, not to exceed sixty dollars per month, from every offender placed under board supervision on probation, parole, or conditional release, to waive all or part of any fee, to sanction offenders for willful nonpayment of fees, and to contract with a private entity for fee collections services. All fees collected shall be deposited in the inmate fund established in section 217.430. Fees collected may be used to pay the costs of contracted collections services. The fees collected may otherwise be used to provide community corrections and intervention services for offenders. Such services include substance abuse assessment and treatment, mental health assessment and treatment, electronic monitoring services, residential facilities services, employment placement services, and other offender community corrections or intervention services designated by the board to assist offenders to successfully complete probation, parole, or conditional release. The board shall adopt rules not inconsistent with law, in accordance with section 217.040, with respect to sanctioning offenders and with respect to establishing, waiving, collecting, and using fees.

4. The board shall adopt rules not inconsistent with law, in accordance with section 217.040, with respect to the eligibility of offenders for parole, the conduct of parole hearings or conditions to be imposed upon paroled offenders. Whenever an order for parole is issued it shall recite the conditions of such parole.

[4.] 5. When considering parole for an offender with consecutive sentences, the minimum term for eligibility for parole shall be calculated by adding the minimum terms for parole eligibility for each of the consecutive sentences, except the minimum term for parole eligibility shall not exceed the minimum term for parole eligibility for an ordinary life sentence.

[5.] 6. Any offender under a sentence for first degree murder who has been denied release on parole after a parole hearing shall not be eligible for another parole hearing until at least three years from the month of the parole denial; however, this subsection shall not prevent a release pursuant to subsection 4 of section 558.011, RSMo.

[6.] 7. Parole hearings shall, at a minimum, contain the following procedures:

(1) The victim or person representing the victim who attends a hearing may be accompanied by one other person;

(2) The victim or person representing the victim who attends a hearing shall have the option of giving testimony in the presence of the inmate or to the hearing panel without the inmate being present;

(3) The victim or person representing the victim may call or write the parole board rather than attend the hearing;

(4) The victim or person representing the victim may have a personal meeting with a board member at the board's central office;

(5) The judge, prosecuting attorney or circuit attorney and a representative of the local law enforcement agency investigating the crime shall be allowed to attend the hearing or provide information to the hearing panel in regard to the parole consideration; and

(6) The board shall evaluate information listed in the juvenile sex offender registry pursuant to section 211.425, RSMo, provided the offender is between the ages of seventeen and twenty-one, as it impacts the safety of the community.

[7.] 8. The board shall notify any person of the results of a parole eligibility hearing if the person indicates to the board a desire to be notified.

[8.] 9. The board may, at its discretion, require any offender seeking parole to meet certain conditions during the term of that parole so long as said conditions are not illegal or impossible for the offender to perform. These conditions may include an amount of restitution to the state for the cost of that offender's incarceration.

[9.] 10. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to require the release of an offender on parole nor to reduce the sentence of an offender heretofore committed.

[10.] 11. Beginning January 1, 2001, the board shall not order a parole unless the offender has obtained a high school diploma or its equivalent, or unless the board is satisfied that the offender, while committed to the custody of the department, has made an honest good-faith effort to obtain a high school diploma or its equivalent; provided that the director may waive this requirement by certifying in writing to the board that the offender has actively participated in mandatory education programs or is academically unable to obtain a high school diploma or its equivalent.

12. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, RSMo, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo, and, if applicable, section 536.028, RSMo. This section and chapter 536, RSMo, are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2005, shall be invalid and void.”; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Moore, House Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

On motion of Representative Moore, HB 700, as amended, was ordered perfected and printed.

HB 375, relating to a bridge designation, was taken up by Representative Nance.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-NINTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 6, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, You have declared to us in Your Word “those who seek Your help have all the good things they need.”

So we seek Your help and receive wisdom for the tasks at hand.
We seek Your help and receive protection from harm.
We seek Your help and receive peace for our soul when in fear.
We seek Your help and receive strength of conviction when falsely accused.

Let not the footstep of pride overtake us as we seek to do good and finish our course.

May we persevere and hold up against stress and weariness brought on by long hours and continual pressures.

Now unto You be glory, majesty, dominion and authority, before all time, now and forever.

In the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Bayley A. House Amendment No. 5

AMEND Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 539, Page 1, Section A, Line 8, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"135.327. 1. Any person residing in this state who legally adopts a special needs child on or after January 1, 1988, and before January 1, 2000, shall be eligible to receive a tax credit of up to ten thousand dollars for nonrecurring adoption expenses for each child adopted that may be applied to taxes due under chapter 143, RSMo. Any business entity providing funds to an employee to enable that employee to legally adopt a special needs child shall be eligible to receive a tax credit of up to ten thousand dollars for nonrecurring adoption expenses for each child adopted that may be applied to taxes due under such business entity's state tax liability, except that only one ten thousand dollar credit is available for each special needs child that is adopted.

2. Any person residing in this state who proceeds in good faith with the adoption of a special needs child on or after January 1, 2000, and before January 1, 2006, shall be eligible to receive a tax credit of up to ten thousand dollars for nonrecurring adoption expenses for each child that may be applied to taxes due under chapter 143, RSMo; provided, however, that beginning on or after July 1, 2004, a minimum of fifty percent of the tax credits allowed shall be allocated for the adoption of special needs children who are residents or wards of residents of this state at the time the adoption is initiated. Any business entity providing funds to an employee to enable that employee to proceed in good faith with the adoption of a special needs child shall be eligible to receive a tax credit of up to ten thousand dollars for nonrecurring adoption expenses for each child that may be applied to taxes due under such business entity's state tax liability, except that only one ten thousand dollar credit is available for each special needs child that is adopted.

3. Any person residing in this state who legally adopts a special needs child on or after January 1, 2006, shall be eligible to receive a tax credit of up to ten thousand dollars for nonrecurring adoption expenses for each child adopted that may be applied to taxes due under chapter 143, RSMo; provided, however, that beginning on or after July 1, 2006, a minimum of fifty percent of the tax credits allowed shall be allocated for the adoption of special needs children who are residents or wards of residents of this state at the time the adoption is initiated. No tax credits under this section shall be allocated for adoption of special needs children from outside the United States. Any business entity providing funds to an employee to enable that employee to proceed in good faith with the adoption of a special needs child shall be eligible to receive a tax credit of up to ten thousand dollars for nonrecurring adoption expenses for each child that may be applied to taxes due under such business entity's state tax liability, except that only one ten thousand dollar credit is available for each special needs child that is adopted.

4. Individuals and business entities may claim a tax credit for their total nonrecurring adoption expenses in each year that the expenses are incurred. A claim for fifty percent of the credit shall be allowed when the child is placed in the home. A claim for the remaining fifty percent shall be allowed when the adoption is final. The total of these tax credits shall not exceed the maximum limit of ten thousand dollars per child. The cumulative amount of tax credits which may be claimed by taxpayers claiming the credit for nonrecurring adoption expenses in any one fiscal year prior to July 1, 2004, shall not exceed two million dollars and shall not exceed four million dollars in any one fiscal year beginning on or after July 1, 2004; provided, however, that in the first ninety days following each July first, if less than two million dollars in credits have been issued for adoption of special needs children in the United States who are not residents or wards of residents of this state at the time the adoption is initiated, the remaining amount of the four million dollar cap shall be available for the adoption of special needs children who are residents or wards of residents of this state at the time the adoption is initiated.

[4.] 5. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, any individual or business entity may assign, transfer or sell tax credits allowed in this section. Any sale of tax credits claimed pursuant to this section shall be at a discount rate of seventy-five percent or greater of the amount sold.

[5.] 6. The director of revenue shall establish a procedure by which, for each fiscal year, the cumulative amount of tax credits authorized in this section is equally apportioned among all taxpayers within the two categories specified in [subsection 2] subsections 2 and 3 of this section claiming the credit in that fiscal year. To the maximum extent possible, the director of revenue shall establish the procedure described in this subsection in such a manner as to ensure that taxpayers within each category can claim all the tax credits possible up to the cumulative amount of tax credits available for the fiscal year.

[6.] 7. The director of revenue shall submit to the general assembly, by January 1, 2005, and each succeeding year, information by income levels of those individual taxpayers who have qualified and claimed the credit authorized in this section, regardless of whether those taxpayers have assigned, transferred, or sold such credits. JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

FIFTIETH DAY, THURSDAY, APRIL 7, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Donald W. Lammers.

Before we begin the work of this daily session, we turn to You, O Lord.

Lord, You have probed me, You know me:
You know when I sit and when I stand;
You understand my thoughts from afar.
(Psalm 139:2)

Aware of Your presence, we continue our work today. May we not be too quick with our judgments, our agenda, our interpretations. When the words of others express Your truth, may we embrace it. May we pause patiently, speak wisely in our turn, and decide aright for Your people.

For this grace, we pray to You, our God forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Jack Passmore, Kevin Ogle, Molly Sly, Emily Price, Nathan Fleming Easley, Allison Louise Powers, Anna Renee Brodersen, Leah Katherine Sauerwein, Lexi Elaine Easter, Aidan August Miget, Audrey Wells, Sean Koster, Alex Kutz, Tim Redfering, Chris Reichert, Jordan Lippert and Elizabeth Bone.

The Journal of the forty-ninth day was approved as corrected.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTY-FIRST DAY, FRIDAY, APRIL 8, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Representative Moore in the Chair.

Prayer by Robbin Kimbell, Legislator Assistant to Representative Danie Moore.

Lord God, we come before You to give You thanks for being with this body of leaders this past week. You know they have worked long and hard making difficult decisions that affect not only the citizens of Missouri, but will touch their own families and friends as well.

Please Lord, grant them wisdom for one more day of decisiveness. Help each of them to be the leaders of integrity You've called them to be. As the book of James 1:5 states: "If any of you lacks wisdom, he should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to him".

Bless them indeed Lord. May they be aware of Your Spirit upon them and inside these Chamber walls. I also ask that You deliver them home safely, give them the physical, mental and emotional rest they will need to return here to complete the task You have set before them. Thank You Lord Jesus.

In Your powerful name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTY-SECOND DAY, MONDAY, APRIL 11, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, hear our prayer, give ear to our cry. Turn Your gaze upon us as we agonize over the tough decisions we face and make daily.

O Lord, we wait on You. Our hope is in You. Examine our hearts and motives that assumptions and preconceived ideas are revealed before we cast one vote.

Help us in our impatience. Guide us in Your truth. Give us words to clearly state our positions. Grant us the wisdom of silence when appropriate and speech when necessary.

Be gracious to us and lift us to a renewed sense of responsibility. Uphold us in our integrity. Keep us in Your love.

We ask these things in the name of Your Son. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the fiftieth day was approved as printed.

The Journal of the fifty-first day was approved as printed.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTY-THIRD DAY, TUESDAY, APRIL 12, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Donald W. Lammers.

Almighty God, we thank You for the gift of springtime. We thank You for the sunlight which calls us into the work of this day, for the cool air which stirs our energy, and for the sight of green leaves announcing Your ongoing creation of new life everywhere.

Lord God, throughout the work of this day, may the vitality of spring remain alive in us. By Your creative power, may new possibilities, new vision and new insights come alive in the members of this body. May all our work, our deliberations, our discussions and finally our voting advance justice and equity among the people of our state. As Your power supports the new life all around us, so may the outcome of our work support and protect the life of all the people.

We pray to You, our God, forever and ever. Amen.
